PREFACE.

In sending out the first portion of "The Church Heraldry of Norfolk," I feel that it devolves on me to preface the work with some few words of explanation, that the Subscribers may know what they have to expect, and thus not be disappointed if it fails to reach the height of their previous anticipations. In the circular which was issued about a year ago it was stated that the work would contain a description of all the coats of arms now to be found in the Norfolk churches, and I wish to say further that these descriptions will be all given from sketches which were made by me on the spot. I am perfectly aware that it must be a work of time, still I do not despair of completing it.

Before now a commencement has been made in this important addition to our county histories; indeed, I must confess to being much indebted to the excellent papers written under the pseudonym of Pedometer and published in The Eastern Counties' Collectanea some years ago. Much the same thing has been done for the county of Essex, and printed in the East Anglian; and in that valuable periodical are also some scattered articles containing the heraldry and inscriptions in a few Norfolk churches, but I am not aware that up to the present time any attempt has been made to put such collections into the form of a book, properly arranged and indexed. That is what I am endeavouring to do.

I am sure it will be acknowledged by all there is great need that such a work should be no longer delayed: the misfortune is that it was not commenced some while ago. In this age of church restoration much heraldry has been destroyed which could have been copied then: not only have most of the hatchments been removed from the walls, first either into the vestry or tower, and then, as I have seen, to the rubbish heap outside; but in those years monuments have totally disappeared, while numberless slabs, and some few brasses, have been covered up by the altar dais, or the organ, or the chancel pews. But few of these memorials of the dead will see the light again, certainly not in our day; of fewer still has any record been taken. Here and there I have met with an isolated case, in the which some interested person has done the good work, but it is the exception, alas! not the rule.

I can hardly dare to hope that in the following pages no single shield in any of the churches has been left undescribed. I am prepared for some few omissions. I can only hope that some one may find them out, that I may be enabled to insert the additions with the corrections before the book is brought to its close.

I trust that the arrangement which I have adopted may be easily intelligible to those who seek in these pages for information. Each parish has been taken quite separately; by this I mean that every coat which occurs there has been once described in it, and then afterwards only referred to by name. In the description of each coat I have stated first that which is on the monument or slab, and then, immediately following it, with the name in brackets, by reference to either Burke's Armory or Papworth's Ordinary, I have given the tinctures as usually borne by the family to whose memory the monument was erected; then in a separate paragraph I have added whatever portion of the inscription I thought worthy of record or likely to be of use. Wherever a copy of the Royal Arms remains I have given it. I have also been careful in noticing, as far as possible, the position in the buildings which the memorials occupy.

I take this opportunity of tendering my thanks to the many kind friends who have given me help, more especially to Mr. Elvin, of Eckling Grange, East Dereham, who has with great care, and no small amount of labour, revised my proofs, and endeavoured, with his great experience, to make up for the deficiency in mine. To Sir Kenneth Kemp my thanks are also due for the kindness which prompted him to take upon himself the cost of engraving the Gissing shields. I hope that others, interested in like manner, may be tempted to follow his good example, and so help to make the work more attractive to the subscribers.

CHURCH HERALDRY OF NORFOLK.

EARSHAM HUNDRED.

ALBURGH.

Slab on the Chancel Floor.

I. A chevron between three bucks trippant, a crescent for difference, Green. Crest: A buck's head erased, charged on the neck with a crescent for difference.

For Thomas Green, Gent., "de Pulham S^{ta} Maria cœlebs," died March 4th, 1706, aged 69.

The Royal Arms, which were on canvas, have not been replaced since the church restoration.

BILLINGFORD.

Mural Tablet in the Chancel.

I. On a bend three boars passant (Le Grys, Quarterly, azure and gules, on a bend argent three boars passant sable.—Bl. Norf. i. 199); impaling, Quarterly, 1 and 4, A fesse ermine between two chevrons (Whirple, Azure, a fesse ermine between two chevrons argent.—Bl. Norf. i. 199); 2 and 3, Three lozenge buckles (Jernegan or Gerningham, Argent, three lozenge buckles gules.) Crest: A boar passant (Le Grys, A boar passant sable, collared or.)

For Christopher Le Grys, "sometime Lord and Patron of this Church, who married Margaret daughter and heir to Thomas Whipple of Dickleburgh and Elizabeth his wife, daughter and coheir to John Garningham of Belton in Suffolk. He died October 19th, 1601, in the 23rd year of his age."

South Window of the Chancel.

II. Azure, a fesse between three leopards' faces or, De-la-pole.

North Window of the Chancel.

III. Barry of ten argent and azure, an orle of martlets gules Valence.

IV. A coat defaced; impaling Valence, with ten martlets.

North Window of the Nave.

V. Argent, a cross gules, St. George.

The Font.

VI. A cross, St. George.

VII. A chevron and a chief.

VIII. Emblem of the Trinity.

IX. A crown transfixed by two arrows per saltire, St Edmund.

X. The Royal Arms stand amidst a lot of rubbish in the tower: they are of Charles II., with Motto, Semper eadem.

The C for Charles has been altered into G in the time of George II.

BROCKDISH.

Mural Tablets in the Chancel.

I. Sable, a chevron between three griffins' heads erased or, Cotton. Crest: A griffin's head erased or.

For Thomas Cotton, who died December 30th, 1778, in the 64th year of his age. The inscription on this tablet is said to have been written by Hannah More.

II. Argent, an eagle with two heads displayed sable, Worth; impaling, Argent, a chevron between three birds rising gules; on a chief sable as many mullets of the field, Aldous. Crest: An arm erect, vested ermine, holding an eagle's leg couped at the thigh.

For the Rev. Walter Worth, late Rector of this place and Thorpe Abbots, who died March 29th, 1755, in the 48th year of his age. Also for Susan his wife, daughter of John Aldous, late of Syleham, who died July 3rd, 1762, in the 54th year of her age.

Coloured Shields standing in the Vestry.

III. Quarterly of eight:—1 and 8, Argent, a cross raguly gules; on a chief of the second a lion passant guardant or, Laurence; 2, Sable, a chevron ermine between three Catherine wheels argent, Aslack; 3, Argent, on a bend between two fleurs-de-lis gules a mullet of six points or, Lany; 4, Or, a chevron engrailed gules between three cinquefoils azure; on a chief of the second a lion passant guardant of the first, charged on the chevron with a crescent for difference, Cooke; 5, Gules, a crescent ermine within an orle of martlets or, Bohun; 6, Azure, three cinquefoils or, Bardolph; 7, Gules, a chevron between three rams' heads couped argent, Ramsey.

For Robert, son of Robert and Anne Laurence, who died Rector in 1739, aged 25.

IV. Laurence impaling, Quarterly of six:—1, Aslack; 2, Lany; 3, Cooke; 4, Bohun; 5, Bardolph; 6, Ramsey.

This shield, which is of oak, was not in the church in Blomefield's time: it probably came from the hall, and is for Robert Laurence, who married Elizabeth, daughter of Aslack Lany, and died July, 1637.—E. C. C. p. 156.

South Clerestory Windows.

V. Argent, two keys in saltire or, St. Peter.

VI. Argent, two swords in saltire or, St. Paul.

VII. Or, a cross gules, Bygod.

VIII. Azure, a fesse between two chevrons argent, Tendring.

IX. Gules, three lions passant guardant or, with a label of three argent, Brotherton.

X. Gules, a lion rampant argent, Mowbray.

XI. Gules, on a bend between six cross-crosslets fitchée argent an escutcheon or, charged with a demi-lion rampant, within a double tressure flory counter-flory of the first, Howard.

XII. Or, a fesse gules, John Bacon.

This shield was added for one who was a benefactor to this church and parish, but I cannot anywhere find such a coat borne by any person of that name.

North Window of the Nave.

XIII. Quarterly:—1 and 4, Azure, a fesse between three leopards' faces or, De-la-pole; 2 and 3, On a bend cotised three pairs of wings conjoined in lure, Wingfield.

This quartering is partly gone, the tinctures were doubtless those given in Burke, Argent, on a bend gules, cotised sable, three pairs of wings conjoined in lure of the field.

XIV. Vert, a saltire argent; on a chief or three fleurs-de-lis azure, France; impaling, Vert, a chevron between three griffins' heads erased argent, Flood.

The Rev. George France is now (1885) Rector here.

Slabs in the Churchyard.

XV. (Tinctured by lines.) Or, a lion rampant between three mullets sable, Walne. Crest: A lion rampant sable.

For Thomas Walne, who died April 6th, 1825.

XVI. A chevron between three birds; and a chief (Sayer, Gules, a chevron between three sea-pies argent; a chief ermine.—Bl. Norf. v. 331.)

The inscription on this stone is for Frances, late the wife of Richard Tubby, who died December 22nd, 1728, in the 69th year of her age. I cannot find that this family was entitled to bear arms, therefore we may presume that she was by birth a Sayer.

DENTON.

Mural Monuments in the Chancel.

I. (Raised.) A fret (Sandby, Argent, a fret sable); impaling Three escallops. Crest: A griffin's head erased, collared, thereon a fret (Sandby, A griffin's head erased argent, collared azure, thereon a fret of the first.)

For George Sandby, D.D., fifty-six years Rector of this parish, Chancellor of the Diocese of Norwich, formerly Fellow of Merton College, Oxford, afterwards Master of Magdalen College, Cambridge, and Vice-Chancellor of that University at the accession of His Majesty George III. to the throne. He died March 24th, 1807, aged 90 years and 10 months. Also for Mary his wife, who died February 3rd, 1797, aged 67 years.

II. (Coloured.) Per chevron or and gules, three mullets pierced, counterchanged, Day; impaling Sandby.

For Catherine, wife of John Day of Norwich, and second daughter of George Sandby, who died 29th day of July, 1789, aged 25.

III. (Coloured.) Or, a bugle-horn sable, stringed gules, between a bar dancettée in chief, and in base a chevron of the third (Postlethwayte, Or, a bugle-horn sable, stringed gules; in base a chevron of the second, a chief indented of the third); impaling, Azure, a fesse between a fleur-de-lis in chief and a mullet in base or, Rogerson. Blomefield calls the last charge an annulet. Crest: A hand fesswise proper, holding a fleur-de-lis or, Rogerson.

For Matthew Postlethwayte, M.A., Rector, also Rector of Redenhall and Archdeacon of Norwich. He died June 27th, 1745. Also for his wife Elizabeth, who died March 29th, 1730.

IV. (Coloured.) Rogerson, impaling, Per pale, argent and sable, a chevron between three talbots passant, counterchanged; on a chief gules as many leopards' faces or, Gooch. Crest: Rogerson.

For Robert Rogerson, M.A., Rector 1660 to 1714, and Barbara his wife, daughter of William Gooch of Mettingham, Suffolk.—Bl. Norf. v. 414.

East Window.

V. Azure, an episcopal staff in pale argent, ensigned with a cross pattée or, surmounted by a pall of the second, charged with four crosses pattée fitchée sable, See of Canterbury; impaling, Gules, a fesse or, in chief a goat's head erased argent; in base three escallops, two and one, of the third, Warham.

For William Warham, Archbishop of Canterbury from 1504 to 1532.

VI. Gules, a cross fleury argent, Quittwell of Norfolk; impaling, Azure, a fesse paly of six gules and vert, between three owls argent, Harward of Norfolk.

VII. Azure, three fleurs-de-lis or, France. This is a portion of the Royal Arms.

VIII. Crest: A demi-griffin rampant or, holding in the dexter paw a cross-crosslet fitchée argent.

IX. Or, two chevrons gules, Fitz-Robert? The coat here is not Or, three chevrons gules, as given in E. C. C. p. 230, and therefore cannot be, I think, that of Clare.

X. Same as No. IX.

XI. Vert, a maunch argent, Banister; impaling, Gules, a cross argent between four plates, Wellesleigh or Wellesley.

This inscription is beneath, "Willielmus Banister de Com. Somerset Armig. Elizabetha filia et hæres Phillippi de Wellesleigh Com. Somerset."

and argent." Blomefield, in the only place where he mentions it, blazons it thus, "Barry of ten, gules and argent," and fails to give any name; and he assigns to Cailly the same coat as Clifton, in which error he is followed by Burke and others. Through the kindness of my friend, Mr. Manning, I am able to give as my authority for assigning it to Cailly, the funeral certificate of Sir Thomas Knyvett, published in The Topographer and Genealogist, vol. i. 472. It is very evident from its position in the shields, both here and in New Buckenham Church, that it can have been intended for no other family.

SPORLE.

Tablet on the South Wall of the Chancel.

I. (Coloured.) Argent, on a fesse between three martlets sable a cinquefoil or, Edwards; impaling three coats:—1, Defaced (It was, Argent, three lioncels in pale passant guardant gules, Brograve); 2, Defaced, except the field, which was clearly sable, and the outlines of the fesse (it was Sable, a fesse cotised, between three conies argent, Coney); 3, Gules, two leopards' faces in pale, between as many flaunches or, Frere.

For "William Edwards, late of Wisbeach in the Isle of Ely, and county of Cambridge, Gent., who married first, Mrs. Mary Brograve, niece to Sir John Brograve; secondly, Mrs Alice Coney of Walpole; and thirdly, Mrs. Susan Frere, daughter of John Frere of Finningham Hall in the county of Suffolk, Gent."

Tablet in the South Aisle.

II. (Coloured.) Argent, a chevron vaire between three bucks in full course proper, Swift. The field should be "or"; but I can see no remains of it. The shield is carelessly painted, and though I believe the above blazon was the intention of the artist, still it might be rendered thus: On a chevron argent, between three bucks in full course proper, two bars nebulée azure. This latter coat I cannot find as having been borne by any family of Swift.

For the Rev. John Swift, who died March 3rd, 1766, aged 77. There is a long Latin inscription, without date or age, which is given on a slab beneath.

III. The Royal Arms are on a panel at the west end, of George III., with churchwardens' names beneath.

I. Altar Tomb between the Chancel and the North Chapel, with recumbent Effigies and Eight coloured Shields.

1. Quarterly:—1 and 4, Azure, three crescents argent, Thorp; 2 and 3, Sable, a fesse between two chevrons or, Bainard.
2. Ermine, a cross engrailed gules, in the first quarter three bars of the second, Northwood.
3. Chequy or and gules, a bend ermine, Clifton.
4. Argent, a chevron between three boars' heads couped sable, muzzled or (Barry. Bl. Norf. v. 150, gives these charges as "bears' heads," which account is correct.)
5. Chequy or and azure, a fesse ermine, Calthorpe.
6. Gules, a saltire engrailed argent, Kerdeston.
7. Argent, a cross gules, St. George.
8. Quarterly:—1 and 4, Azure, three fleurs-de-lis or; 2 and 3, Gules, three lions passant guardant or, Holland, Earl of Kent.

On the armour of the knight Thorp quartering Bainard.

For Sir Edmund de Thorp, otherwise Lord Thorp, who was killed at the siege of Lovers' Castle in Normandy, c. 1417.

This tomb must have been repainted since Blomefield's time. Instead of the last two coats he gives, "Or, a lion rampant gules, armed and langued azure," and "Argent, two bars and a canton gules."

Slabs in the North Chapel.

II. A bend within a bordure engrailed (Knyvett, Argent, a bend within a bordure engrailed sable.) Crest: A demi-dragon (Knyvett, A demi-dragon, wings azure.)

ASLACTON.

Slab in the Chancel.

I. Three chevrons, braced in base; on a chief a lion passant between two mullets (Mallom of Walter Acton, granted 4th May, 1685, Argent, three chevrons, braced in base gules; on a chief of the second a lion passant between two mullets of the first); impaling, A chevron voided between three birds (Phillip, Azure, a chevron between three falcons close argent.) Crest: A dexter arm erect holding a lure (Mallom, A dexter arm erect, habited vert, the cuff turned up ermines, the hand proper holding a lure, feathered argent, garnished or, stringed and tasselled gules.)

For Sarah, Elizabeth, and Phillis, the children of John and Phillis Mallom. Sarah died May 2nd, 1737, aged 13 weeks; Elizabeth died October 21st, 1737, aged 6 years; and Phillis, March 24th, 173⅜, aged 3 years.

Slab in the Nave.

II. A chevron engrailed between three fleurs-de-lis; on a chief three spear-heads (Wright of Kilverston, Sable, a chevron engrailed argent between three fleurs-de-lis or; on a chief of the third three spear-heads azure.) Crest: A dragon's head erased (Wright, A dragon's head erased argent pellettée.)

For Elizabeth, wife of John Utting, late of Aslacton, Surgeon, sole heiress of Richard Wright, formerly of the same parish, who died February 22nd, 1798, aged 73. Also for Richard Utting, their eldest son, who died May 10th, 1807, aged 56.

Slab in the South Aisle.

III. This shield has been so much cut about that I cannot blazon it. I should say it was originally a quartered coat with an impalement. Bl. Norf. v. 180, gives it as Le Neve impaling Aldham. The inscription is also almost illegible.

For William Le Neve, who died 1609.

Coloured Shields on the Nave Roof.

IV. Sable, a lion rampant argent, Cromwell; impaling, Gules, an anchor argent; on a chief or three roses of the field, Gibson.

V. Azure, two lions rampant combatant or, Carter; impaling, Ermine, two bendlets gules, Ireton.

Both Burke and Papworth mention a marriage between a grand-daughter of General Henry Ireton and Mr. Carter, a wealthy merchant of Yarmouth.

VI. Quarterly of six:—1, Cromwell; 2, Sable, three spear-heads argent, Cynvrig Sais; 3, Sable, a chevron between three fleurs-de-lis argent, Collwyn ap Tangno; 4, Gules, three chevrons argent, Jestin ap Morganny; 5, Argent, a lion rampant sable, langued gules; 6, Or, a chevron sable; in the dexter chief a mullet of the second, Murfine.

This is the quartered coat of Oliver Cromwell, the identification of which I have taken from "The House of Cromwell," by Mark Noble, vol. i., 248. It is there given in the illustration facing p. 281, but No. 5 is not accounted for. I have also received, through the kindness of Mr. Paul Rylands, F.S.A., an impression of the Protector's seal, on which the quarterings are the same, with the exception that in No. 6 the mullet is on the chevron.

VII. Cromwell, impaling, Quarterly:—1 and 4, Or, a fesse chequy, argent and azure, Steward; 2 and 3, Argent, a lion rampant gules, over all a bend ragulée or, Steward.

VIII. Per pale nebulée, argent and azure, six martlets, two, two, and two, counterchanged, Fleetwood; impaling, Cromwell.

Altar Tomb, East of the Churchyard.

IX. On a cross five fleurs-de-lis (Le Neve, Argent, on a cross sable five fleurs-de-lis of the field.) Crest: Out of a ducal coronet a lily, stalked and leaved (Le Neve, Out of a ducal coronet or a lily argent, stalked and leaved vert, bladed and seeded of the first.)

The inscription here is illegible; all I can make out is, "Ro . . . June 9th, 1721, aged 71."

Broken Slab in the Churchyard.

X. Phillip. Crest: A dove rising.

For Robert Phillip and Elizabeth his wife. She died February 2nd, 1753, aged 34.

BUNWELL.

Slabs in the Chancel.

I. A saltire (Baldwin, Argent, a saltire sable.) Crest: A cockatrice, ducally gorged and lined (Baldwin, On a mount vert a cockatrice argent, wattled, combed, and beaked or, ducally gorged and lined of the last.)

For the Rev. James Baldwin, M.A., Rector of this church and Carleton Rode, who died October 2nd, 1749. He married Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Cooper, Merchant in Yarmouth.

II. Baldwin, charged with a crescent for difference.

For Charles, son of James Baldwin, Clerk, Rector of this parish, and Elizabeth his wife, who died June 6th, 1733, aged 7.

At the West End.

III. The Royal Arms of A. R. (Queen Anne) after the Union with Scotland.

CARLETON RODE.

Slabs in the Churchyard.

I. A saltire (Le Hunt, Vert, a saltire or.)

For "Thomas le Hunt, Esq., son of Sir George le Hunt of Little Bradley in Suff., Jan. 2, 1703, 76, and Margaret his Relict, Nov. 6, 1716, 80."—Bl. Norf. v. 126.

II. A chevron between three crescents.

These two slabs were, when I saw them in 1883, very much broken and nearly covered with grass. Some part of the inscription is still legible on No. I.

FORNCETT ST. MARY.

FORNCETT ST. PETER.

Slabs in the Chancel.

I. A fesse ermine, cotised; in chief three stags' heads cabossed (Aggas, Azure, a fesse ermine, cotised or; in chief three bucks' heads cabossed of the last.—Bl. Norf. v. 262.)

For William Aggas, M.A., twenty-seven years Vicar of Hempnall, and twenty-three years Rector of both Forncetts, who died September 4th, 1724, aged 51.

II. (Tinctured by lines.) Argent, on a bend sable three bezants, Jack. I cannot find these arms.

For Thomas Jack, S.T.B., Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge, for thirty-nine years Rector of both the Forncetts. He died March 16th, 1844, aged 75. There is a very long Latin inscription.

Slab in the Nave.

III. On a bend between two lions rampant three fishes embowed (Osborne, Argent, on a bend between two lions rampant sable three dolphins embowed of the first.—Bl. Norf. iv. 201.) The charges here are more like pike.

For Robert Osborne, Gent., who died . . . . . , aged 80 years. Also for Christian his wife, who died in the year 1750, aged 62; and also for eight of their children.

IV. Brass and Incised Slab in the Nave, with Three Shields.

1. (On slab.) On a pale within a bordure three roundels (Baxter, Argent, on a pale within a bordure sable three bezants.) See shield at Stratton St. Mary. Bl. Norf. v. 262, has "Argent, on a pale within a bordure azure three estoiles of the field." I have never met with this.
2. (On brass.) Baxter.
3. (On brass.) A wyvern with wings displayed (Drake, Azure, a wyvern with wings displayed or. Shield at Stratton St. Mary.)

For Thomas Baxter, who married Margaret, daughter of William Drake, and died April 24th, 1535. Bl. Norf. v. 262, gives April 15th as the date of his death.

Incised Slab.

V. Baxter.

For Richard Baxter, who died the last day of May, 1484.

Head Stone in the Churchyard.

VI. Ermine, on a chevron between three escallops as many griffins' heads couped (Hardy, Sable, on a chevron ermine, between three escallops argent, as many griffins' heads erased of the field.) Crest: Between two wings displayed a griffin's head couped, collared, holding in the mouth a sprig.

For Isaac Hardy, who died November 24th, 1808, aged 47; and Elizabeth Coleman, his widow, who died December 21st, 1828, aged 63.

FRITTON.

Tablet on the South Chancel Wall.

I. (Nearly defaced.) An estoile of sixteen points (Hirst or Hurst, Argent, an estoile of sixteen points gules); impaling . . . .

For Elizabeth, wife of Thomas Hirst of the City of Norwich, and daughter of Thomas Holmes, Clerk, Rector of Fritton. She died November 1st, 1762, in her 37th year.

Shield in the North Window of the Chancel.

II. Argent, a cross gules, St. George.

HARDWICK.

I. Monument in the Chancel with Two coloured Shields.

1. Quarterly:—1 and 4, Ermine, on a chief azure three lioncels rampant gules, Gleane; 2 and 3, Argent, semée of cross-crosslets and a lion rampant gules, crowned or, Brewse, with Ulster badge in the fesse point.

2. Or, three eagles displayed purpure, Rodney.

Crests: 1, A Saracen's head proper, Gleane; 2, An eagle displayed purpure on a ducal crown or, Rodney. Mottoes: 1, Jai serry mon Roy; 2, Non generant Æquilæ Columbas.

For Sir Peter Gleane, Baronet, and his wife Dame Penelope, daughter to Sir Edward Rodney, Knt.

Bl. Norf. v. 219, states that Sir Peter died about 1694, and his wife 1689, and that Sir Edward Rodney was of Rodney Stoke in Somersetshire.

II. Monument against the North Chancel Wall, with Three coloured Shields.

1. Gleane impaling Brewse.
2. Brewse, impaling, Sable, a chevron ermine between three estoiles argent, Brewster.
3. Brewster.

For Thomas Gleane, eldest son of Sir Peter Gleane, Knt., and Dame Maud his wife, and likewise Elizabeth, wife of the said Thomas, daughter and heir of Thomas and Elizabeth Brewse. Thomas Gleane died 27th January, 1660, aged about 74; Elizabeth Gleane died July 22nd, 1634, aged about 45.

Bl. Norf. v. 218, 219, gives a shield with Gleane impaling Suckling on this monument. I could not see it. The tinctures are defaced on all.

Brass in the Chancel, now loose.

III. Three boars passant, with an annulet for difference (Bacon, Azure, three boars passant or. Bl. Norf. v. 220, has a misprint here, "Azure, three bars argent, an annulet for difference sable"); impaling, Ermine, on a bend cotised an annulet for difference, Jenney. (The tinctures of Jenney differ considerably, and as I cannot identify this marriage I have not stated them.)

For George, son of Thomas Bacon, Gent.

Slab in the Chancel.

IV. A lion rampant charged with three chevrons (Rand, Or, a lion rampant gules, charged with three chevrons argent. Bl. Norf. v. 221, gives, Per chevron, or and argent, a lion rampant gules); impaling, On a bend, a tassel with a rope and ring, the tassel toward the dexter, Brock. Crest: Out of a coronet a boar's head in pale.

For "Samuel Rand, Clericus, A.M.," born at Harleston, December 15th, 1649, died at Hardwick, June 7th, 1714, having been for thirty-three years Rector of Hardwick, and for thirty-one years Rector of Shelton. He married Mary, only daughter and heiress of Thomas Brock of Dereham, who died August 5th, 1724.

Shield in the East Window.

V. Azure, a cross or, Shelton; impaling, Argent, a lion rampant sable, crowned or, Morley.

Shield in a North Window of the Nave.

VI. Shelton, impaling, Argent, a fesse between three mullets gules (Cretyng? Argent, a chevron between three mullets gules, pierced of the field. I can find no other coat as impaled by Shelton at all like it, except this.)

The Royal Arms in plaster were in the church when the restoration commenced (1881), but they fell to pieces when handled.

HEMPNALL.

Slab at the East End.

I. A wolf salient (Donne, Azure, a wolf salient or); impaling, A cross patonce between four cinquefoils (Manning, Quarterly, azure and gules, a cross patonce between four cinquefoils or.) Crest: A wolf's head erased (Donne, A wolf's head erased or.)

For Castres Mott Donne, Clerk, late Vicar of Hempnall and Rector of Barningham. He died June 11th, 1819, aged 36. Also for Frances his relict, daughter of the Rev. H. C. Manning of Thetford, and Mary his wife, who died August 8th, 1822, aged 40.

Slab in the North Aisle.

II. A bend between two dolphins naiant, French. Crest: On a mount a wolf salient.

The slab is partly covered up by pews. Bl. Norf. v. 182, mentions one for "Robert French, Gent., Aug. 31, 1711, aged 57," but I think this is of more recent date than that.

Altar Tomb in the Churchyard.

III. Per fesse, a pale and three quatrefoils (Simmons, Per fesse, sable and argent, a pale counterchanged, three trefoils slipped of the second); impaling Manning. Crest: On a coronet a wolf statant.

For Eliza, late wife of William Simmonds, and daughter of the Rev. H. C. Manning, who died August 15th, 1819, aged 28. The inscription is very much obliterated.

At the West End.

IV. The Royal Arms of Victoria.

MORNINGTHORPE.

I. Monument on the North Side of the Chancel, with Five raised Shields.

1. Quarterly of nine:—1, A chevron engrailed between three escallops, with a crescent for difference (Garneys or Garnishe, Argent, a chevron engrailed azure between three escallops sable); 2, Three rams' heads couped (Ramsey, Gules, three rams' heads couped argent); 3, Barry of four; in chief three cinquefoils (Wellisham, Sable, two bars; in chief three cinquefoils or); 4, A chevron between three cinquefoils (Kenton, Sable, a chevron between three cinquefoils or); 5, A chevron engrailed ermine between three birds rising (Fraunceys, Gules, a chevron ermine between three doves volant proper); 6, Two lions passant guardant (Denstone, Azure, two lions passant guardant or); 7, On a chevron a cross-crosslet (Wanton or Waunton, Argent, on a chevron sable a cross-crosslet of the field); 8, On a chevron ermine three martlets (Toppesfield, Gules, on a chevron ermine three martlets sable); 9, A fesse between three fleurs-de-lis (Churche, Sable, a fesse between three fleurs-de-lis argent.)
2. On a fesse dancettée, between six cross-crosslets fitchée, three anchors (Raworth, Gules, on a fesse dancettée argent, between six cross-crosslets fitchée or, three anchors sable.)

4. Garneys, with crescent for difference; impaling, Two chevrons, a bordure engrailed, with a crescent for difference (Tyrell, Argent, two chevrons azure, a bordure engrailed gules.)
5. Garneys, with crescent for difference; impaling, Toppesfield. Bl. Norf. has here, "On a chevron five martlets," evidently having blazoned the ermine spots as two additional birds.

Crest: A mermaid, holding with the dexter hand an escallop (Garneys, A mermaid with mirror and comb, all proper.)

There is no inscription on this monument. Bl. Norf. v. 292, gives the identification of the coats, and states that it was erected for Martha, wife of Robert Raworth, and daughter of John Garneys; taking his information from a slab on the floor beneath.

Slabs in the Chancel.

II. Raworth impaling Garneys. Crest: A demi-lion, holding in his dexter paw a cross-crosslet fitchée.

For Martha, wife of Robert Raworth, a merchant in London, and daughter of John Garneys, who died August 22nd, 1694, aged 36.

III. With Two Shields.

1. Garneys, impaling, A saltire ermine between four eagles displayed (Rudge or Rugge, Azure, a saltire ermine between four eagles displayed argent.—Suckling MSS.)
2. Garneys, impaling, A chevron between three mallets (Soame, Gules, a chevron between three mallets or.)

For John Garneys, who died December 15th, 1661. Also for Charles, father of the said John Garneys, sometime High Sheriff for the county, who died January 30th, 1657, in his 89th year.

IV. (In lozenge.) Garneys.

For M^is^ Anne Garneys, eldest daughter of John Garneys, who died March 29th, 1668; also Dame Margaret Gostling, who died January 23rd, 1733, aged 69.

V. Garneys, impaling, A tortoise displayed (Gawdy, Vert, a tortoise passant argent.) Crest: Garneys.

For Anne Garneys, daughter of Sir Charles Gawdy, "Equitis Aurati de Crowes Hall in com. Suffolciæ," and wife of Wentworth Garneys of Boyland Hall, who died September 7th, 1681.

VI. (In lozenge.) Garneys.

VIII. Garneys, impaling, Ermine; on a chief a griffin passant (Richmond of Hedenham, Ermine, on a chief sable a griffin passant or.)

For Charles, son of Clere Garneys of Kenton in Suffolk, who died June 25th, 1678.

IX. (In lozenge.) Garneys.

For Mrs. Elizabeth Garneys, eldest daughter of John Garneys "by the last venture," who died March 13th, 1675.

X. A lion rampant within an orle of pheons (Roope, Argent, a lion rampant within an orle of pheons gules); impaling, Barry of ten; on a canton a helmet. I have made every endeavour, but in vain, to identify this impalement.

For "John Roope, Juner, Gent., who died the thirth^en^ day of June, 1685."

Slab in the Nave.

XI. On a chevron three birds (Hammond of Ellingham, Or, on a chevron sable three Cornish choughs argent); impaling, Per cross. Crest: An elephant's head ducally gorged (Hammond, An elephant's head argent, ducally gorged and eared or.)

SHELTON.

I should think, from the appearance of the tombs in this church, that the shields thereon were repainted about fifty years ago, without any regard to tinctures. In every case the field of the Shelton coat is "vert," whereas it should be "azure." I have given them exactly as they are, and where it is evident what they ought to be, I have stated it.

I. Tomb against the Wall of the North Aisle, with Seven coloured Shields.

1. Vert, a cross or (Shelton, Azure, a cross or.)
2. . . . . impaling Shelton.
3. Shelton impaling . . . .
4. Shelton impaling . . . . It was Woodhouse.
5. . . . . impaling Shelton.
6. Shelton impaling . . . . It was Morley.
7. Shelton.

"Here lies buried Sir John Shelton, who married Margaret, the daughter of Lord Morley, and had issue Raphe, Anne, Alys, and Marie. He died . . . . November, Anno Dom. 1558."—Bl. Norf. v. 267.

II. Tomb on the North Side of the Altar, with Ten coloured Shields.

1. . . . . impaling Shelton.
2. . . . . impaling Shelton.
3. Shelton.
4. Shelton impaling . . . .
5. Shelton impaling . . . .
6. Shelton impaling . . . .
7. Quarterly, ermine and azure, in the second and third quarters a leopard's head argent, Woodhouse of Waxham.—Bl. Norf. v. 268.
8. Shelton impaling Woodhouse.
9. Quarterly:—1, Shelton; 2, Ermine, two chevrons sable, Illey; 3, Quarterly, or and gules, a bend sable, on the second and third quarters three annulets argent, Burgulion; 4, Azure, a cross chequy argent and gules, Cokefield.
10. Shelton.

This Ralph is made out to be High Sheriff of Norfolk in 1570, whereas in 1568 he died. The dates of birth of his several children are still on the tomb, in almost every case they differ from the account in Blomefield.

III. Tomb on the South Side of the Altar, with Six coloured Shields.

1. Argent, a chevron gules between three bull's heads couped sable, Boleyn or Bullen; quartering, Or, a chief indented azure, Botiler or Butler.
2. Shelton impaling Boleyn.
3. Boleyn.
4. Shelton impaling Boleyn.
5. Quarterly:—1, Shelton; 2, Illey; 3, Burgulion; 4, Cokefield.
6. Shelton impaling Boleyn.

For "Sir John Shelton, High Sheriff of Norfolk in 1504, made Knight of the Bath at the Coronation of Henry VIII. He married Anne, daughter of Sir William Boleyn of Blickling, and died Decr. 21st, 1539, aged 62. His wife was sister and coheir to Thomas Boleyn, Earl of Wilts and Ormond, son of Sir William Boleyn, Knt., of Blickling, by Margaret, daughter and coheir of Thomas Botiler, Duke of Ormond."—Bl. Norf. v. 267.

There were brass effigies and shields on the top of this tomb.

IV. Tomb by the Wall of the South Aisle, with Five coloured Shields.

1. Argent, on a bend sable three eagles displayed or, Houghton; impaling, Argent, three annulets azure, Richers; counter-impaling Houghton; impaling, Azure, two barrulets argent between three close helmets or, Armiger of North Creake.
2. Houghton impaling Richers.
3. Houghton impaling Armiger.
4. Richers.
5. Defaced.

For Sir Robert Houghton, Knt., Serjeant-at-Law, one of the Justices of the King's Bench. He married Maria, daughter of Robert Richers of Rootham, Kent. Born at Gunthorpe August 3, 1548, and buried 6 Feb. 1623, in the church of St. Dunstan in the West. His son Francis with his wife Helena are buried in the same tomb. The inscription is very illegible.—Bl. Norf. v. 272.

Tablet on the Wall of the North Aisle.

V. (Coloured.) Argent, a chevron sable between three bulls' heads cabossed gules, Curteis. Crest: A unicorn passant or between four trees proper.

For the Rev. Jeremiah Curteis, youngest son of the Rev. Samuel Curteis and Eleanor his wife, who died January 19th, 1881, aged 77, Rector of this parish for forty-five years. Also for his wife, Sarah Ann, daughter of James Gardner and Sarah Ann Bloom of Wells-next-the-Sea. She died June 21st, 1858, aged 46.

Slab in the Chancel.

VI. Shelton, impaling, Two bars; in chief as many pallets (Churchman, Argent, two bars sable; in chief as many pallets of the second.) Crest: A Moor or Saracen's head proper.

For Henry Shelton of Barningham, Suffolk, who married Hester, daughter of Sir John Churchman of Illington, Norfolk. He died May 24th, 1690, aged 36.

Slab in the South Aisle.

VII. Two swans in pale between as many flaunches (Futter, Sable, two swans in pale proper, between as many flaunches or.) Crest: A goat's head erased, holding in the mouth a branch (Futter, A goat's head erased or, attired sable, holding in the mouth a holly branch vert, fructed gules.)

For Robert Futter, late of this parish, Gent., who died December 10th, 1727; and Susanna his relict, daughter of Thomas and Tabitha Dawson, late of this parish, who died December 19th, 1733, aged 78.

Slab in the Nave.

VIII. A bend cotised (Pearse, Vert, a bend cotised or); impaling, On a chevron three birds (Toppesfield? Gules, on a chevron ermine three martlets sable. Bl. Norf. v. 273 has for this impalement "A chevron between two birds.") Crest: A pelican vulning herself (Pearse, A demi-pelican rising or, vulned on the breast proper, crowned gules.)

For William Pearse, Gent., who died August 3rd, 1711, aged 80; for Elizabeth, wife of Charles Pearse, who died August 10th, 1714, aged 34; and also for the wife of William Pearse, with no name or date.

XX. Boleyn.

XXI. Ermine, an eagle displayed gules, Bedingfeld; impaling Shelton.

XXII. Shelton, impaling, Per pale, or and gules, a lion passant argent, Plais of Tofts.

This church contained a very great deal of heraldic glass, in fact "all the matches of the Shelton family." There is not much left now. The arms of Shelton and Boleyn are introduced amidst the tracery and framework of the east window, as also on the dresses of the figures, and above the heads of the founders of the church, Sir John Shelton and his wife.

Between the clerestory windows there are twenty shields, twelve of which bear the arms of Shelton, and eight the family rebus, "an escallop shell and a tun."

WALSHAM HUNDRED.

ACLE.

Slabs in the Nave.

I. A fret; on a canton a lion rampant (Cotes or Coates, Argent, a fret sable; on a canton gules a lion rampant or.—See Burlingham St. Peter.) Crest: A coot?

For Thomas Coates, Senior, who died August 13th, 1727, aged 80.

II. (In lozenge.) Cotes, impaling, A chevron between three owls ducally crowned (Burton, Sable, a chevron between three owls argent, crowned or. There is a slab with this coat in Stalham church.)

For Elizabeth, relict of Thomas Coates, Junior, of Acle, Gent., who died May 3rd, 1749, aged 63. She left one daughter, sometime wife of James Burkin of North Burlingham, and afterward of Charles Buckle of Norwich.

III. Three eagles displayed. (Wynn, Vert, three eagles displayed in fesse or.) Crest: An eagle displayed.

For Edward Wynn, aged 55, who died September 23rd, 1652. I could not find this slab. See E. A. i. 325.

Tablet on the South Wall of the Chancel.

IV. (Coloured.) Gules, four bars or, Berry. Crest: An arm embowed, habited sable.

For Jeremiah Berry, Gent., late of the city of Norwich, who died October 31st, 1767, aged 59; also for Alice his wife, who died August 19th, 1742, aged 34.

In the South Porch.

V. Crest: Five spear heads, points upwards.

Inscription defaced. See E. A. i. 325.

Shields on the Font.

VI. Emblem of the Trinity, with text.

VII. Shield of the Passion.

Over the Chancel Arch.

VIII. The Royal Arms of William IV., carved in oak.

BEIGHTON.

On the Seats in the Chancel.

I. Crest: A lion's head erased, murally crowned, charged with a fesse dancettée (Fellowes, A lion's head erased or, murally crowned argent, charged with a fesse dancettée ermine.)

On the Chancel Door.

II. Crest: Fellowes.

FISHLEY.

Shield in the East Window.

I. Argent, crusily fitchée sable, a lion passant in bend gules between two bendlets azure, on each three crosses fitchée or (Marsham. These last charges should be "cross-crosslets.) Motto: Quod adest.

The Rev. Edward Marsham was patron here in 1837.—Dawson Turner's List, page 2.

HALVERGATE.

Slabs in the Chancel.

I. Three bugle-horns stringed (Thruston of Hoxne, co. Suffolk, Sable, three bugle-horns stringed or, garnished azure); impaling, A lion rampant (Welles of Lincolnshire, Or, a lion rampant sable. The head of the animal is here depicted more like that of an heraldic tiger.) Crests: 1, A heron; 2, A lion as in the arms, pierced through the neck with a broken spear.

For Elizabeth, wife of John Thruston of Hoxon (Hoxne), Suffolk, daughter of William Welles of Halvergate, who died December 22nd, 1662.

II. A chevron ermine between three martlets (Welles of Hants, Sable, a chevron ermine between three martlets argent.)

For William Welles, Gent., who died March 29th, 1669, and Mary his first wife, who died October 30th, 1668. This family seem to have changed their coat between 1662 and 1669. See No. I.

Tablets in the Chancel.

III. (Not tinctured.) Ermine, on a bend engrailed, three lucies' heads erased and collared (Gillett, Ermine, on a bend engrailed sable three lucies' heads erased or, collared with a bar gemel gules.) Crest: A lucy's head erect, erased or, collared as in the arms.

For Richard Gillett, who died February 11th, 1868, aged 79; for Mary his wife, who died February 12th, 1861, aged 46; also for Mary Matilda Haines, late of Poringland House, relict of Samuel Haines, late of Chad House, Edgbaston, who died March 25th, 1870, aged 58.

IV. (Not tinctured.) Gillett. Crest: Gillett.

For Mary, wife of William Gillett, who died July 24th, 1810, aged 52; also for William Gillett, who died February 23rd, 1843, aged 87.

V. (Not tinctured.) Gillett. Crest: Gillett.

For Lydia, wife of John Gillett, who died May 13th, 1799, aged 41; for John Gillett, who died September 18th, 1821, aged 77; for Amelia, wife of Henry Gridley, youngest daughter of John and Lydia Gillett, who died December 17th, 1821, aged 24; also for Mary Anne, another daughter of John and Lydia Gillett, who died December 9th, 1831, aged 47.

In a Window on the South Side of the Nave.

VI. Gules, three bendlets enhanced or, Gridley; impaling, Gillett. The bend is here "gules." Crest: Out of a ducal coronet a demi-lion rampant or, supporting a pheon azure.

For Amelia Gridley. See No. V.

HEMBLINGTON.

Tablet on the North Wall of the Nave.

For William Heath, Gent., late of this parish, who died August 5th, 1777, aged 44; also Ann his wife, daughter of the late John Johnson of Ludham in this county, Gent., who died October 4th, 1806, aged 46; also for William Heath, who died August 18th, 1825, aged 62, and his sister, Catherine Clayton, who died September 26th, 1834, aged 69.

Slab in the Nave.

II. Heath.

For Robert Heath, Gent., who died November 27th, 1765, aged 59.

MOULTON.

I. Monument on the South Wall of the Chancel, with Figures and Three coloured Shields.

1. Gules, a cinquefoil pierced or, Anguish of Moulton. Crest: Gone. It was, "A snake nowed proper, between two branches of fern vert."
2. Anguish, impaling, Ermine, on a canton gules a martlet sable (Barton. The martlet should be "or.")
3. Anguish, impaling, Gules, two bars ermine; in chief . . . . . (Gilbert of North Burlingham, Gules, two bars ermine; in chief three fleurs-de-lis or.)

"Neare unto this place resteth (in assured hoape to rise in Christ) the boddyes of Edmond Anguish of Moulton, Gent., who depted. this liffe the 23rd of August, 1616, aged 76, and of Richard Anguish, whoe married Abrahã the daughter of Thomas Gilbert of Burlingham, Gent., and by her had 3 sonnes and 3 daughters, viz., Edmond, Elizabeth, Thomas, Edmond, Abrahã, and Katheren, which said Abrahã, the wife of the said Richard, deceased the 18th of December, 1626, aged 46, and the said Richard her husband the 14th of Ffebruarye, 1627, aged 54, leavinge at his death on sonne and on daughter, viz., Thomas and Katheren. Edmond Anguishe, Gent., Clark of the Peace for the county of Norfolk, in tokene of his love to his said unckle Edmond, and as Executor to his said cozen Richard, caused this monument to be erected, August, 1628." "Edmond Anguish, who died in 1616, married Ann, the daughter of Robert Barton of St. Faith's, Norfolk."—Carthew's Launditch, iii. 318.

Shield in the East Window.

II. Anguish, dimidiated with, Azure, a lion rampant argent, within a bordure of the second, charged with eight torteaux (Henley. The lion is usually "crowned or.") Crest: Anguish.

"Thomas Anguish, Esq., F.R.S., F.A.S., Acct. Gen. to the Court of Chancery, who died Dec. 31, 1785, aged 60, married MONUMENT IN MOULTON CHURCH. 1628.

Sarah, daughter of Henry Host Henley, Esq., of Leigh, co. Somerset, Recorder and M.P. for Lynn Regis, who died Jany. 3, 1807, and is buried at Moulton."—Carthew's Launditch, iii. 319.

Hatchment.

III. Quarterly:—1 and 4, Or, a bend sable . . . ; 2 and 3, Per pale, argent and sable, a unicorn courant between three crosses botonée all counterchanged, Layer; impaling Anguish.

This hatchment is now at the old hall, having been removed from the church.

PANXWORTH.

At the West End.

I. The Royal Arms of Queen Victoria, carved in oak.

RANDWORTH.

Slab in the Chancel.

I. A chevron ermine between three fleurs-de-lis; impaling, A cross between four crescents (Barnham, Sable, a cross between four crescents argent. The cross is sometimes "engrailed.") The position of the coat is reversed on this shield, possibly by an error of the engraver.

For "William Barnham, late of ye city of Norwich, Gent., who died June 19th, 1718, aged 66, and Mary his wife, who died August 17, 1720, aged 46."

Monument on the South Wall of the Nave.

II. (Raised.) On a chevron three birds, with a crescent for difference (Holdiche of Randworth, Azure, on a chevron or three magpies or seapies proper.)

For "Thomas Holdiche, one of the sonnes of Robert Holdiche of Randworthe, Esq., who died the x day of August, 1579."

At the West End.

III. The Royal Arms of George III., after the Union with Ireland.

REEDHAM.

Tablet on the North Wall of the Nave.

I. (Coloured.) Ermine, on a saltire gules five martlets or, Mellings? Crest: A coot's head couped proper.

"Hoc Roberto Mellings
Roberti fratris filio
Roberti fratris filii filius
Bernardus patruus
depositum
posuit
obiit } Jan. { 17
sepultus } { 19
Aged 29
1665."

II. Monument with Figures and Two raised Shields in the South Chapel.

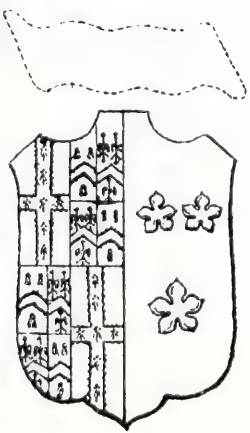
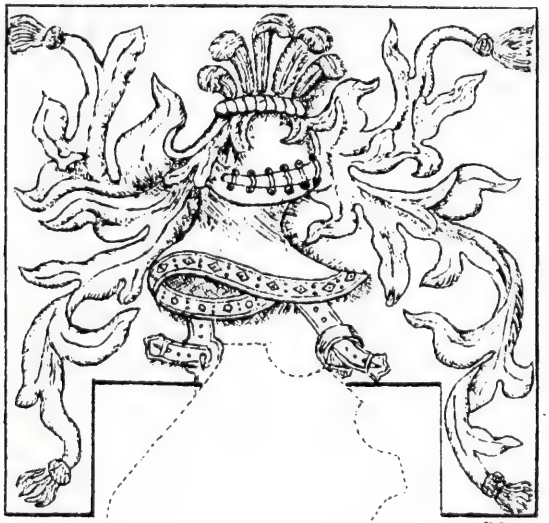
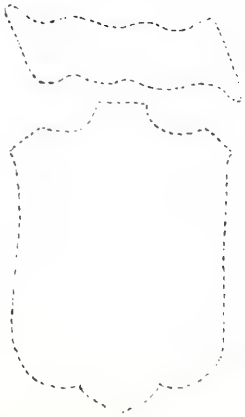
1. Quarterly:—1, A cross engrailed ermine (Berney, Per pale, azure and gules, a cross engrailed ermine. The field of this coat differs much: in the windows of this church it is, "Per pale, gules and azure"; sometimes it is, "Quarterly azure and gules"; but I have found it more often as I give it here); 2, A chevron engrailed between three reed sheaves (Reedham, Gules, a chevron engrailed between three reed sheaves or.—Bl. Norf. xi. 128. In an old MS. in the possession of Mr. Rye of 1460, Reedham's arms are, Azure, three reed sheaves or); 3, A chevron between three eagles displayed (Caston, Gules, a chevron between three eagles displayed argent.—Bl. Norf. xi. 128); 4, On a canton a cross (Bradestone, Argent, on a canton gules a cross or.) Crest: A reed sheaf. This crest is on a slab of the Berneys at Swardeston. I should say it was originally that of the Reedham family, and assumed by the Berneys for awhile after the marriage.
2. Quarterly:—1 and 4, A fesse engrailed between three apples (Appleton, Argent, a fesse engrailed between three apples gules, foliated vert); 2 and 3, A bear salient crowned (Appleton of Appleton, co. Lancaster, Argent, a bear salient sable, crowned or.)

For Henry Berney, Esq., son and heir of Thomas Berney, who died March 4th, 1584, and Alice his wife, daughter of Roger Appleton of Essex.







BRASS AT REEDHAM.

Brass in the South Chapel, with One Shield remaining.

III. (Much defaced.) Quarterly:—1 and 4, Berney, with crescent for difference; 2 and 3, Reedham quartering Caston; impaling Three cinquefoils. (Southwell, Argent, three cinquefoils gules.) Crest: A plume of ostrich feathers (Berney, A plume of ostrich feathers per pale argent and gules.)

There is no inscription, but is probably in memory of "John Berney, who married 1st, Alice, daughter of Richard Southwell, Esq.; and 2nd, Margaret, daughter of Sir Roger Wentworth of Essex."

Slabs in the South Chapel.

IV. Berney, with the Ulster badge.

"Hic jacet Richardus Berney, Baronettus, filius tertius Thomæ Berney, Equitis, in hoc oppido natus, in loco sepultus secundo die mensis Januarii, Ano. Dom. 1668, atque ætatis suæ 74."

V. Berney, impaling . . . . The sinister side of the shield is plain.

For "Dame Anne Berney, wife to Sir Richard Berney, who was buried ye 12th day of October, 1652." She was daughter of Michael Smallpiece of Chichester.—Bl. Norf. xi. 125.

HARDINGHAM.

Tablets in the Nave.

I. (Coloured.) Argent, on a fesse sable three escallops of the field; a canton ermine, Parke; impaling, Gules, on a bend argent three pierced mullets with six points of the field; in chief a bezant. Crest: A talbot's head couped argent, pierced in the neck with a pheon or.

For George Parke, Gentleman, and landowner in this parish, who died at Shrubland Villa, Heigham, Norwich, February 24th, 1881, in his 79th year. His widow, Sarah Parke, erected this tablet.

II. (Raised.) A chevron between three griffins' heads erased (Heyhoe, Sable, a chevron argent between three griffins' heads erased or. See page 327.)

For Edward Pawlett Heyhoe, Esq., late of this parish, senior son of Grigson Heyhoe, Esq.; he died a bachelor, 3rd March, 1788, in his 48th year.

Slab in the Nave.

III. Heyhoe. Crest: A griffin's head erased.

For Grigson Heyhoe, Rector of Yaxham and Welborne, who died April 7th, 1763, aged 56.

Slabs in the Chancel.

IV. A leg in pale, couped at the thigh (Gilman of Hingham, Argent, a leg in pale, couped at the thigh sable.—Bl. Norf. ii. 429.) Crest: On a chapeau a demi-lion rampant (Gilman, On a chapeau gules, turned up ermine, a demi-lion rampant proper.)

For Reuben, son of Samuel Gilman of Hingham, and his wife Frances, who was the daughter of Edward Heyhoe. He died . . . . . 23rd, in his 46th year. Also for Anna his wife (late Anna Ellis, spinster), who died December 12th, ... in her 41st year. This slab is partly covered up.

V. Two bars; in chief three annulets (Grigson, Gules, two bars argent; in chief three annulets of the last.) Crest: A griffin's head couped (Grigson, Out of a ducal coronet or a griffin's head, chequy argent and sable.)

I. A chevron between three griffins segreant (Wythe, Azure, three griffins passant in pale or.—Norris MSS.)

For Richard Wythe, who died January 29th, 1659, aged 51.

Tablet on the South Wall of the Nave.

II. (Coloured.) Per chevron, or and azure, three mullets counterchanged, Day; impaling Day. Crest: Two hands conjoined proper, fixed to a pair of wings, the dexter or, the sinister azure, each charged with a mullet counterchanged.

For Starling Day, late of Norwich, who died March 2nd, 1820; and also for Bridget his wife, who died October 14th, 1806, aged 65.

Hatchment in the Vestry.

III. Gules, a rose argent, seeded or, barbed vert; a chief ermine, Howman; impaling, Azure, on a chevron or, between three martlets argent, as many trefoils slipped of the last. I think this is a local attempt at the arms of Wood, "Per pale, argent and sable, on a chevron, between three martlets, as many trefoils slipped, all counterchanged."

On the north side of the churchyard is a slab for Rhoda Howman, who died August 13th, 1839.

On a Poppy Head in the Nave.

IV. Crest: Out of a ducal coronet a plume of five ostrich feathers, Berney.

On the Reading Stall.

V. (Coloured.) Argent, a lion rampant sable, crowned or, Morley. Crest: Out of a ducal coronet or a bear's head sable, muzzled of the first. This is the crest borne by the Parkers of Hurstmonceaux, Sussex.

"Sir Robert de Morley and the Lady Hawise his wife paid their relief for all this barony 100 marks in 1323: in this noble family it remained till the death of Robert Lord Morley in 1442. In 1489, Alice, daughter of Henry Lovell, Lord Morley, married Sir William Parker of London."—Bl. Norf. x. 229.

On Benches at the West End.

VI. Morley. Crest as in No. V.

VII. A cross engrailed ermine (Berney, Per pale, azure and gules, a cross engrailed ermine.) Crest: Berney.

MATTISHALL.

Slabs in the Chancel.

I. Ermine, three chevrons (Reppes, Ermine, three chevrons sable.—Bl. Norf. x. 236); impaling, Per fesse, three lions rampant, a bordure ermine (Willis of Fen Ditton, Per fesse, argent and gules, three lions rampant counterchanged, a bordure ermine.—Bl. Norf. x. 236. The field is sometimes "gules and argent.") Crest: Out of a ducal coronet a double plume of ostrich feathers, between two wings expanded (Reppes, Out of a ducal coronet or a double plume of ostrich feathers ermine, between two wings expanded of the first.)

For Nicholas Reppes, S.T.P., who died April 13th, 1689; also for his wife Jane, the daughter of Sir Thomas Willis, Bart., of Ditton in Cambridgeshire.

II. Reppes, impaling, A chevron between three talbots passant; on a chief a leopard's face (Gooch, Per pale, argent and sable, a chevron between three talbots passant counterchanged; on a chief gules as many leopards' heads or.—Bl. Norf. x. 236. See page 5.) Crest: Reppes. The plume of feathers single.

For John Repps of Reymerston, who died November 23rd, 1696, aged 61. "He married Martha, sister of Robert Gooch of Gray's Inn."—Carthew's Launditch, iii. 321.

III. (In lozenge.) Reppes impaling Gooch.
For Martha, wife of John Repps of Reymerston, who died November 29th, 1705.

IV. Reppes, with mullet for difference; in pretence, A chevron between three crosses pattée (Calibut, Azure, a chevron between three crosses pattée or.) Crest: Reppes, as in No. I.
For Lucy, daughter of Richard Calybut of Saham, and wife of Francis Reppes, who died November 11th, 1681, aged 23.

VI. Reppes, with label of three. Crest: Reppes.
For Henry, eldest son of John Reppes, who died January 6th, 1666.

VII. Quarterly:—1 and 4, Reppes; 2, On a bend three cross-crosslets (Fastolfe, Quarterly, or and azure, on a bend gules three cross-crosslets of the first.—Bl. Norf. viii. 150, x. 236); 3, A bend between three trefoils slipped (Smythe, Or, a bend between three trefoils slipped azure.—Bl. Norf. x. 236.) Crest: Reppes, as in No. II.
For John Reppes, who married Ann, the daughter of Nicholas Howlet, B.D., Vicar of this parish, and died July 20th, 1672, aged 61.

VIII. Reppes impaling Reppes. Crest: Reppes.
For "Ann, late wife of John Reppes, who died March 29th, 1681." If this be the slab for Ann, the daughter of Nicholas Howlet, and I think that it is so, for Carthew's Launditch, iii. 321, gives no second marriage, it is curious that the sinister side of the shield should also bear the coat of Reppes.

IX. On a cross five bells (Sedgewick or Sigiswick, Or, on a cross gules five bells of the field.)
For William Sigiswick, sometime Vicar of this parish, senior Fellow of Caius College, Cambridge, who died September 26th, 1675, aged 61. This slab was placed here by his brother, Robert Sigiswick.

X. Ermine, a lion rampant between three dexter hands couped (Neale, Ermine, a lion rampant between three dexter hands couped gules.) Crest: A dragon's head erased (Neale, A dragon's head or, vulned in the neck gules.)
For Gibson Neale, Gent., who died April 17th, 1747, in his 59th year.

XI. Neale.
For Sarah, wife of Gibson Neale, who died July 11th, 1747, in her 57th year.

Tablets in the Chancel.

For Francis, fifth son of John and Ann Reppes, born February, 1639; married first, Lucy, daughter of Richard Calibut of Saham; second, Mary, daughter of John Leman of Brampton in Suffolk; he died December 17th, 1692.

XIII. (Coloured.) Quarterly:—1, Argent, on a cross gules five mullets or, Bodham; 2, Or, fretty sable; on a chief of the second three bezants, Chamberlayne; 3, Or, on three chevrons gules nine fleurs-de-lis of the field, Fitz Raulf of Suffolk; 4, Or, nine fleurs-de-lis, three, three, and three (Dallinghowe? Vert, nine fleurs-de-lis, three, three, and three, or); impaling, Azure, a wolf rampant argent (Donne of Mattishall, Azure, a wolf salient or.)

For the Rev. Thomas Bodham, who died June 20th, 1796, aged 58; and also for Ann his wife, who died January 3rd, 1846, aged 97.

XIV. (Coloured.) Quarterly:—1 and 4, Donne; 2 and 3, Gules, a chevron ermine between three seapies argent, Sayer.

For Edward Charles Donne, who died May 25th, 1819, aged 43.

XV. (Coloured.) Quarterly:—1 and 4, Quarterly, first and fourth, Or, a chevron sable between three murrs proper, Carthew; second and third, Azure, a chevron between three escallops or, a bordure engrailed of the second, Colby of Banham; 2 and 3, Argent, a fleur-de-lis gules, with a crescent for difference, Morden; impaling, Sable three pikes argent, Pyke. Crest: A murr proper, ducally gorged or.

For the Rev. Morden Carthew, A.M., late Vicar of Mattishall, who died June 11th, 1821, aged 61; also for his wife Emily Tweed, daughter of ..... Pyke, who died May 5th, 1838, aged 55, and was buried at Leamington.

XVI. (Tinctured by lines.) Argent, a chevron between three cross-crosslets gules, Smith of Suffolk; impaling, Argent, a fesse between three mallets sable, Browne. Crest: Out of a mural coronet a cock's head or (Smith. It should be an ostrich's head, but it is very unlike one.)

For George William Smith, who died March 22nd, 1841, in his 73rd year. He was Vicar of Bawdsey, Suffolk, and formerly resident and Curate of this parish, also for thirty-five years of Reymerstone. And in the vault of the Rev. Thomas Paddon lies Mary, relict of the above, who died June 17th, 1862, in her 89th year.

Slabs in the South Chapel.

At the West End, on the South Side, Four coloured Shields.

I fancy these shields must have been painted simply with a view to effect and decoration. I give them as they are. See No. I.

VI. Gules, a lion rampant argent between three trefoils slipped or, Skyppe.

VII. Skyppe, impaling, Azure, on a bend gules three fleurs-de-lis or; a chief of the third, thereon two eagles displayed sable.

VIII. Skyppe, impaling, Ermine, on a fesse gules three lions rampant argent.

IX. Same as No. VI.

Windows on the South Side of the Nave.

X. Gules, a chevron argent between two crosses potent in chief and an annulet in base or (Wotton.—Bl. Norf. x. 267.)

XI. Wotton, impaling, Gules, a saltire between four cross-crosslets fitchée argent, Brampton.

XII. Wotton, impaling, Argent, three cinquefoils gules, Southwell.

In the 19th of Henry VIII. William Wotton, Esq., was lord of this manor. He married Ann, daughter of Richard Southwell of Woodrising.

Windows on the North Side of the Nave.

XIII. Gules, a lion rampant argent.

XIV. Gules, a lion rampant argent; impaling Wotton.

XV. Argent, three mitres labelled or, See of Norwich.

In the West Window.

XVI. Two keys in saltire, St. Peter.

Altar Tomb on the North Side of the Churchyard.

XVII. A maunch. Crest: A bull's head erased. The arms of Hastings are, "Argent, a maunch sable," and the crest is, "A bull's head erased sable, armed and ducally gorged or."

The inscription on this tomb is much defaced, the most I can with any certainty decipher is, "Mrs. Anne . . . . . Daughter of Philip . . . . . " At the west end is, "John Monse, who died Jan^{y}. 16, 172$\frac{2}{3}$, aged 53."

WESTFIELD.

Slab in the Nave.

I. Between two bendlets three walnut leaves (Waller, Sable, between two bendlets argent, three walnut leaves or.) Crest: On a mount a walnut tree with an escutcheon pendant from the dexter side, thereon the arms of France within a bordure (Waller, On a mount vert a walnut tree proper, on the sinister side an escutcheon pendent charged with the arms of France, with a label of three, argent.) Sir Richard Waller, fighting at Agincourt, took prisoner the Duke of Orleans, and was allowed by Henry V. to add the French arms to his crest.

For Thomas Waller, Gent., born at East Dereham, November 27th, 1695, died December 27th, 1770, aged 75.

WHINBURGH.

Brass in the Nave.

I. On a bend cotised three martlets. There is no inscription, Bl. Norf. x. 273 gives the tinctures thus: "Azure, on a bend cotissed argent three martlets gules," and it is there assigned to Malherbe, but it does not correspond with the usual coat of that family. It is again given in x. 221 as an impalement of Whinbergh, with the tinctures different, "Azure, on a bend gules cottised argent three martlets or."

Slab in the Chancel.

II. On a cross five fleurs-de-lis (Le Neve, Argent, on a cross sable five fleurs-de-lis of the field.)

For "Robert Le Neve, Rector of Whynburgh, who dyed June 9th, 1676."

In the South Porch.

III. The Royal Arms of G. R., before the Union with Ireland.

WOODRISING.

I. Monument on the North Side of the Chancel, with Three Shields.

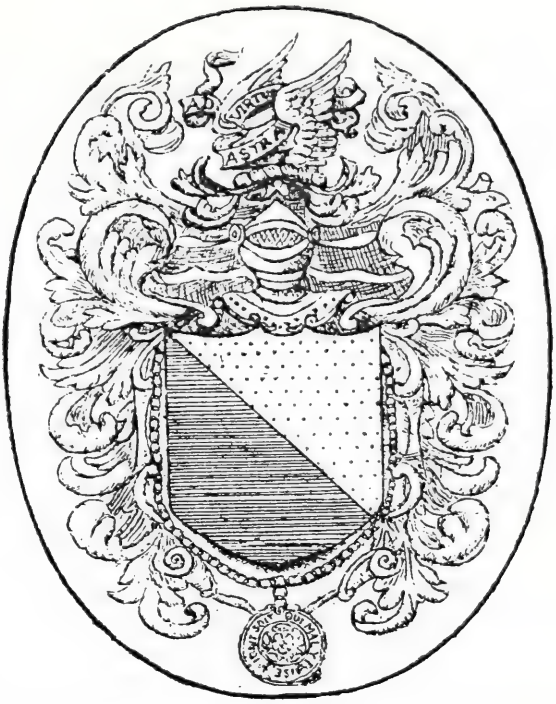
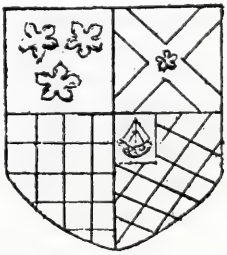
1. (Raised.) Quarterly of six:—1 and 6, Three cinquefoils (Southwell, Argent, three cinquefoils gules); 2, Ermine, two rings interlaced; on a chief three crosses pattée (Wichingham, Ermine, two rings interlaced sable; on a chief of the last three crosses pattée argent); 3, Ermine, on a bend three fleurs-de-lis; 4, On a fesse between two chevrons three crescents (Tendring of Brenthall, co. Essex, Azure, on a fesse between two chevrons argent, three crescents gules); 5, A chevron between ten cross-crosslets, six and four (Holbrook, Gules, a chevron between ten cross-crosslets or.) Crest: A demi-Indian goat rampant, ducally gorged.
2. (In lozenge.) Quarterly of five:—1, Three cinquefoils (Darcy, Argent, three cinquefoils gules); 2, A fesse ermine cotised (Harlstone, Argent, a fesse ermine, cotised sable); 3, A goat salient; 4, A chevron, and in dexter chief an annulet (Wanton, Argent, a chevron sable, and in the dexter chief an annulet of the second); 5, A fesse between six oak leaves (Fitz Langley, Argent, a fesse between six oak leaves gules.) This shield has a crescent for difference.
3. Same as No. 2.

There is no inscription, but from the shields it must have been erected in memory of Sir Richard Southwell, who "was a favourite of King Henry VIII., one of the visitors appointed by him of the monasteries in Norfolk, of the Privy Council to the King,



Sir Francis Crane, Knight,

Chancellor of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.



Heare lyeth robart the eldest sonne &
heyre of S:r robart sowthwell Knight by Ely zabeth the eldest davghter of Charles lo: howard l: Admiral of englande who depted this lyfe the .xxiii. of septebr 1586

also Edward VI. and Queen Mary, Master of the Ordnance and the Armory, one of the executors of King Henry VIII., and High Steward of the Duchy of Lancaster; he married first, Thomasine, daughter of Sir Robert Darcy, Knt., of Danbury in Essex; and second, Mary, daughter of Thomas Darcy of Danbury."—Bl. Norf. x. 276-77. It is a curious coincidence that he and his two wives all bore the same arms.

Brasses in the Chancel.

II. (Tinctured by lines.) Per bend, azure and or, Crane. Crest: A pair of wings endorsed and erect, running through them a scroll, thereon "Virtus ad Astra." Beneath the shield, supported by a chain, is the badge of the Order of the Garter.

The inscription is on white marble let into the slab beneath the brass shield, "S^r^ Francis Crane, K^t^., Chancellor of the Most Noble Order of the Garter (aged about 57 years), dyed the 26^th^ daye of June, at Paris in France, from whence his body was brought and buried in this place the 10^th^ daye of July following, An^o^ Dn^i^ 1636."

III. Quarterly:—1, Southwell; 2, On a saltire a rose, with crescent for difference (Neville, Gules, on a saltire argent a rose of the field); 3, Chequy .....; 4, Fretty; on a canton a hunting horn stringed.

For "Robert the eldest sonne and heyre of S^r^ Robart Southwell, Knight, by Elizabeth, the eldest daughter of Charles Lo. Howard, L^d^ Admiral of Englande, who depted. this lyfe the xxiii of Septeb. 1586."

IV. Same as No. III., with no inscription.

Slabs in the Chancel.

[illegible]n lozenge.) A chevron between three martlets.

For "Dame Jane Crane, late wife of S^r^ Richard Crane (of this [illegible]aronet, deceased. His body layeth buried in the Church of Ca[illegible]e in South Wales. My dayes ended the 3^o^ of September, 1647." Bl. Norf. x. 279, states that "Richard Crane was created a Baronet on March 20th, 1642; that he married Mary, daughter of William, Lord Widdrington, and died in 1645."

VI. On a fesse between three crosses pattée fitchée as many annulets, with a label of three for difference (Crane of Buckinghamshire, Gules, on a fesse between three crosses pattée fitchée or, as many annulets azure); impaling, Quarterly:—1 and 4, On a chevron three roundels, in the dexter chief a crescent (Bond, Argent, on a chevron sable three bezants; in chief a crescent gules); 2 and 3, Crane of Woodrising.

For "Frances, ye wife of William Crane, who died May 19th, 1655, aged 37." Bl. Norf. x. 279 states that, "By Mary, daughter of . . . . . Bond, the adopted heir and niece of Sir Francis Crane, this property came to William Crane, Esq., son of John Crane of Loughton in Buckinghamshire, Clerk of the Kitchen to King James and King Charles I." There is evidently a mistake; the name "Mary" should be "Frances."

VII. A chevron engrailed between three escallops (Bedell of Hamerton, co. Huntingdon, Gules, a chevron engrailed between three escallops argent.) Crest: Out of a palisado crown a buck's head (Bedell, Out of a palisado crown a buck's head or, attired azure.)

For John Bedell of Woodrising, who died January 10th, 1708, aged 27.

VIII. Bedell. Crest: Bedell.

For Edward Bedell, who died March 30th, 1690.

IX. (In lozenge.) Bedell, impaling, Three church bells, a canton ermine (Porter, Sable, three church bells argent, a canton ermine.)

For "Isabella Bedel, wife and widdow of Eduard Bedel, Esq^{re}, daughter of George Porter, Esq^{re}, and y^{e} Lady Diana, his hon^{ble} consort, who died May 21, 1705."

X. Tablet in the South Aisle with three Shields.

1. (Tinctured by lines.) Ermine, on a cross gules five escallops argent, with crescent for difference, Weyland.
2. Quarterly:—1 and 4, Weyland; 2 and 3, Per pale, argent and gules, a lion rampant of the first; impaling, Sable, a fesse between three sheldrakes argent, Sheldon.
3. Weyland, in pretence, Gules, a fesse between two chevrons argent, Nourse.

Crest over each shield: A lion rampant sable.

For John Weyland, Esq., of Woodrising Hall, who died in October, 1767; for Anne his widow (descended from the ancient family of Sheldon), who died January, 1768; for Mark Weyland of George Lane, London, and Swaffham in this county, younger brother of the said John Weyland, Governor of the Bank of England, who died March, 1797, aged 72; for John Weyland, Esq., of Woodrising Hall, and of Woodeaton in the county of Oxford, who died at his house in Lower Grosvenor Street, London, July, 1825, aged 81; also for Elizabeth his wife, daughter and coheiress of John Nourse, Esq., of Woodeaton, who died February, 1822, aged 77.

Hatchments in the Nave.

XI. Weyland, impaling, Azure, a talbot passant or; on a chief indented argent three cross-crosslets sable, Keene. Crest: Weyland.

"John Weyland, Esq., of Woodrising, married on March 12th, 1799, Elizabeth, daughter and heiress of Whitshed Keene, Esq., of Richmond, M.P. for Montgomery."—Burke's Landed Gentry.

XII. Same as No. XI., without the crest.

XIII. Weyland, in pretence Nourse. Crest: Weyland.

XIV. Weyland, impaling, Sable, three boars' heads couped or, langued gules; a bordure chequy of the second and first, Gordon.

Richard Weyland, who was an officer in the army, and served in the Peninsular war, married on September 12th, 1820, Charlotte, daughter of Charles Gordon of Cluny.—Burke's Landed Gentry.

YAXHAM.

Brass on the North Wall of the Chancel.

I. (Tinctured by lines.) Quarterly:—1 and 4, Argent, on a fesse sable three fleurs-de-lis of the first, Patteson; 2, Barry of six argent and sable; 3, Sable, three eagles with wings displayed or.

For William Frederick Patteson, M.A., Vicar of St. Helen's, Norwich, for fifty-seven years, Hon. Canon of Norwich Cathedral, who died November 14th, 1881, aged 81; also for Eleanor his wife, who died September 3rd, 1864, aged 64.

In a Window of the South Aisle.

II. Crest: A wolf's head erased or, Donne.

For Roger Manning Donne, who died at Santander in Spain, on February 2nd, 1836, aged 24; for two sons of the Rev. Castries Mott Donne, Vicar of Hempnall; also for John Thomas Donne, M.B., Army Surgeon, who died at St. Thome, Madras, July 1st, 1848, aged 35.

In a Window on the North Side of the Nave.

III. Sable, a chevron argent between three griffins' heads erased or, Heyhoe. Crest: A griffin's head, as in the arms.

For Jermyn Heyhoe, who died in 1809; Charles Heyhoe, who died in 1829; and Elizabeth Heyhoe, who died in 1838.

In the Windows of the Chancel.

IV. Argent, on a bend vert three bucks' heads cabossed of the field, Fawset. Crest: A buck's head couped.

V. Azure, a cross engrailed ermine, Stoughton. Crest: A robin redbreast.

VI. Azure, three cinquefoils or, Collinson. Crest: A demi-lion rampant holding in the paws a cinquefoil or.—Carthew's Launditch, iii. 6.

VII. Same as No. V.

VIII. Per fesse, or and azure, in chief a demi-lion rampant issuant gules, a bordure argent (Marcon, Azure, on a chief or a demi-lion rampant issuant gules, a bordure argent.) Crest: A lion sejant, winged or, supporting a lyre of the first, behind the lion's head the sun rising proper.

IX. Same as No. VIII.

X. Quarterly:—1 and 4, Azure, a wolf salient or, Donne; 2, Gules, a chevron ermine between three seapies argent, Sayer. Crest: Donne.

XI. Gules, a chevron engrailed between three owls argent, Hewitt. Crest: On the trunk of an old tree, from which springs fresh branches, an owl, all proper.

For "Catherine, daughter of Charles Hewitt and wife of William Bodham Donne, who died in 1843; also for Catharine, wife of Charles Hewitt, who died in 1820."

In a Window at the West End of the South Aisle.

XII. Gules, on a chevron argent three torteaux.

Brass on the Chancel Floor, with Portraiture.

II. The shields formerly above the figure are gone. There were two, and they are thus described in Cotman's Monumental Brasses, p. 39: (1) Quarterly:—1, Clere; 2, Gules, a bend componée or and azure between six cross-crosslets argent, Ormesby; 3, Gules, a fesse or; in chief a label of three ermine, Snecke; 4, Argent, a chevron between three crosslets fitchée and five billets sable, Westlesse. (2) Quarterly:—1 and 4, Clere; 2 and 3, Argent, a cross moline gules, Owydale or Udale; impaling, Argent, a chevron gules between three bulls' heads couped sable, Boleyn.

There are still in existence, between each word of the inscription, shields of arms shewing the alliances of the family.

1. An eagle displayed, Cotton.
2. Owydale or Udale, with an annulet at the fesse point.
3. Three clubs. This is given by Cotman as, "Or, three spear-heads sable, Patole. See Bl. Norf. vi. 390."
4. Snecke. The label is not ermine.

5. A chevron ermine between three fleurs-de-lis (Rees, Gules, a chevron ermine between three fleurs-de-lis or.)
6. Three bulls' heads couped.
7. A chevron; in chief a label of three (Hopton. Argent, a chevron azure.)
8. A chevron between, in chief, two cross-crosslets fitchée and three billets, and in base one cross-crosslet fitchée and two billets (Westlesse. See Cotman's account.)
9. On a chevron three estoiles.
10. Quarterly:—1 and 4, A bend; 2 and 3, Fretty (Hue le Despensier. Quarterly:—1 and 4, Argent, a bend sable; 2 and 3, Gules, fretty or); impaling, A saltire engrailed (Kerdestone? Gules, a saltire engrailed argent.)
11. Two chevrons reversed; in chief a crescent for difference (Newton, co. Norfolk, Argent, two chevrons reversed gules.—Harl. MSS. 1386, fo. 35; Bl. Norf. vi. 391.)
12. Ermine, on a chief three crosses pattée (Wichingham, Ermine, on a chief sable three crosses pattée or.)
13. Three hammers (Martel, Gules, three hammers or.)
14. Three chevrons (Clare? Or, three chevrons gules.)
15. Owydale, as in No. 2.
16. A cross engrailed (Ufford? Sable, a cross engrailed or.)
17. Cotton? Same as No. 1.
18. Three quatrefoils (Bardolf, Azure, three quatrefoils or. They are usually cinquefoils.)
19. Cotton? Same as No. 1.
20. Same as No. 6.
21. On a bend three mascles. Cotman has here "Argent, three mascles between two bendlets sable," for Gimmingham. The family of Pert bore, "Argent, on a bend gules three mascles of the first.
22. Snecke. The label is here ermine.
23. Westlesse.
24. A cross, in the first quarter a spear-head in pale.
25. Owydale. There is no annulet here.
26. Paly wavy of six (Molyns, Paly wavy of six or and gules.)
27. Shield of the Passion.

"Orate pro aïa Roberti Clere, Militis, qui obiit decimo die mensis Augusti Anno Domini millesimo quincentessimo vicesimo nono, cujus anime propicietur Deus. Amen."

VIII. Crest: A falcon, beaked and belled, on its breast a cross, beneath it the Ulster badge (Lacon, Bart., of Ormesby, A falcon proper, beaked and belled or.)

This is at the entrance to the Lacon vault.

ORMESBY ST. MICHAEL.

Tablet on the North Wall of the Chancel.

I. (Coloured.) Gules, a chevron between three pears or, Abbot; impaling, Argent, on a chevron azure, between three foxes' heads erased gules as many pears or, Upcher. Crest: A plume of five ostrich feathers, out of a ducal coronet a horse's head, Upcher. The dexter coat is that borne by Charles Abbot on his book-plate.

For Robert Upcher, late of Sudbury, co. Suffolk, who died December 5th, 1787, aged 61; also for Peter Upcher of Great Yarmouth, who died December 8th, 1796, aged 46. This tablet* was erected by Elizabeth his beloved wife. "Peter Upcher of Sudbury married Susan, daughter of Charles Abbot, Gent."—Burke's Landed Gentry.

Slabs in the Chancel.

II. Quarterly:—1 and 4, Upcher; 2 and 3, Abbot. Crest: Upcher. Motto: Præstat opibus sapientia.

For Emily, daughter of Peter Upcher, Esq., and Elizabeth his wife, who died April 10th, 1783, aged 15 months.

III. With Two Shields.

1. Three castles triple-towered (Castell, Argent, three castles triple-towered gules.) Crest: A dragon's head couped (Castell, A dragon's head, couped at the neck gules.)
2. (In lozenge.) Three eagles displayed; impaling, On a bend between six mullets a quatrefoil.

For Anne, wife of John Castell, Gent., who died December 12th, 1714, aged 59; for Mr. John Castell, who died July 2nd, 1718, aged 69; for John their son, who died at the age of 17 years; for Deborah their daughter, who died 26 years old; and also for Robert, Anne, and Mirabella, who died infants.

IV. Per pale, three bucks trippant (Suckling of Woodton, Per pale, gules and azure, three bucks trippant or); impaling, Per pale, on a fesse wavy between three crosses pattée as many crescents (Godsalve, Per pale, gules and azure, on a fesse wavy argent between three crosses pattée or as many crescents sable.) Crest: A buck springing, holding in its mouth a branch (Suckling, A buck courant or, holding in the mouth a branch of honeysuckle proper. It is thus given in Burke's Armory, but on this slab "the buck" is certainly "springing," and corresponds with that described on p. 141.)

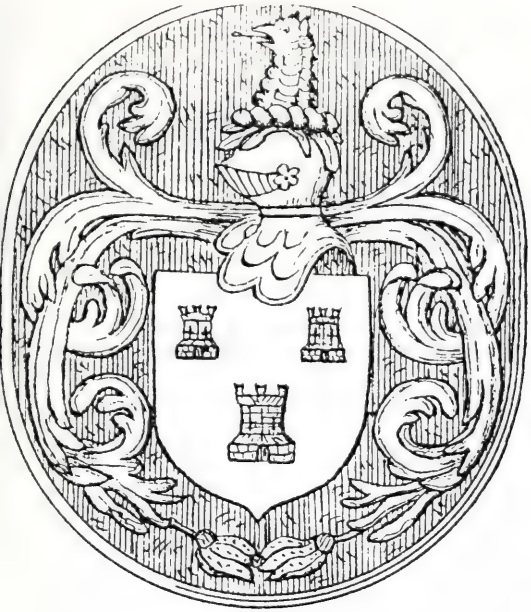
* The chancel of this church being now (1886) under restoration, this tablet is partially covered up.



JOHN CASTELL, 1718.

ANNE CASTELL, 1714.

KATHERINE SUCKLING, 1649.

SLABS AT ORMESBY, ST. MICHAEL.

For Katherine, wife of Lionell Suckling, Esq., who died September 8th, 1649.

"Though dead yet deare
Though deare yet dead to me
Dead is her body
Deare is her memorie."

Tablet on the North Wall of the Nave.

V. (Coloured.) Quarterly:—1 and 4, Quarterly, azure and gules, a cross flory between four trefoils slipped or, Manning; 2 and 3, Argent, a fesse between three boars' heads erased sable, Allison; impaling, Sable, on a chevron between six crosses pattée fitchée or as many fleurs-de-lis azure, Smyth of Topcroft. The chevron is generally "engrailed." Crest: Out of a ducal coronet or an eagle's head sable between two ostrich feathers argent.

For Hester, wife of William Manning, Esq., of this parish, youngest daughter of George Smyth, Esq., of Topcroft, who died February 5th, 1805, in her 60th year. Also for William Manning, Esq., who died June 30th, 1825, in his 94th year.

Hatchment in the Tower.

VI. Quarterly:—1 and 4, Manning; 2, Argent, two dolphins haurient respecting each other sable, chained together by their necks, the chain pendant or, Coulson; 3, Allison; impaling Smyth. Crest: Manning.

RUNHAM.

STOKESBY.

Slabs in the Chancel.

I. A chevron between three lions' heads erased (Wyndham, Azure, a chevron between three lions' heads erased or); impaling, A cross engrailed ermine (Berney, Per pale, azure and gules, a cross engrailed ermine.) Crest: A lion's head erased within a fetterlock (Wyndham, A lion's head erased within a fetterlock, all or.)

For "Carolus filius major natus Caroli Wyndham, Generosi, obiit vicessimo octavo die Julii, 1685, Anno Ætatis 24." See No. III.

II. Barry of six (Wace, Barry of six, argent and gules); impaling, Three lozenges, with a mullet for difference (Freeman, Azure, three lozenges or.) Crest: A demi-lion rampant (Wace, A demi-lion rampant, gorged with a ducal coronet. See p. 76.)

For "John Wace, A.M., Rector for sixty years, who died January 23rd, 1729, aged 85. He married Ann, daughter of Robert Freeman, Esq., who died 19 X^{br} 1694."

III. (In lozenge.) On a fesse between three antelopes' heads erased as many crescents (Themylthorp or Thimblethorp, Sable, on a fesse between three antelopes' heads erased or, as many crescents gules); impaling, Wyndham.

For Sarah, widow and relict of Charles Themylthorpe of Worstead, Gent., eldest daughter of Charles Wyndham of Stokesby, by Elizabeth his wife, daughter of Sir Thomas Berney, Bt. She died December 29th, 1733, aged 49.

Brass on the Chancel Floor, with only a portion of the Portraiture and one Shield remaining.—Cotman's Sepulchral Brasses, p. xliv.

IV. A chevron between three lions' heads erased affrontée, ... ; impaling, Fretty, a chief chequy (Gygges or Gyggs, Sable, fretty ermine; a chief chequy argent and of the first.)

There were three other shields, the first was from the shape of the matrix in a lozenge, and contained, I should say, the coat of Gyggs, the second remains, the third was Clere, and the fourth Quarterly of seven:—1, A fesse indented; 2, A chevron between three lions' heads erased; 3, A cross; 4, A chevron between, in chief two lions' heads erased affrontée, and in base a nag's head couped; 5, On a chief three lozenges; 6, A fesse between two chevrons; 7, A fesse between three crescents.

For Anne, wife of Sir Thomas Clere, daughter and heir of Robert Gygges, Esq., of Rollesby, who died in November, 1570.

Brass on the Chancel Floor with Portraitures and one Shield remaining.—Cotman, pp. xxvii. and xxxiii.

V. On a fesse three eagles displayed (Clere, Argent, on a fesse azure three eagles displayed or); impaling, On a chief three lozenges (Charles, Ermine, on a chief gules three mascles of the first. See p. 26, where they are also "lozenges.") There were originally four shields.

For Edmund Clere and Elizabeth his wife, daughter and heiress of Thomas Charles. He died November 5th, 1488.

At the end of a Bench.

VI. Berney.

Shield in a Window on the South Side of the Chancel.

VII. Argent, on a bend azure three cocks' heads erased or, combed and wattled gules, Worship. Crest: A cock's head, as in the arms. Motto: Idem semper.

For John Lucas Worship, who died July 6th, 1865, aged 72; also for William Taylor Worship, who died March 2nd, 1849, aged 52.

Slab in the Churchyard.

VIII. Much defaced. From a slab in Alby Church on which the inscription runs, "George England nuper de Stokesby," I gather that the arms here must have been for England, "Three lions passant in pale"; and Crest: "A lion's head erased." In Great Yarmouth Church, on a hatchment, are the arms of England, "Gules, three lions passant in pale argent, each charged with an ermine spot."

The inscription is also nearly obliterated, but I can distinguish "George England."

Altar Tomb at the East End of the Churchyard.

IX. On a bend three leopards' faces (Mingay, Or, on a bend azure three leopards' faces of the field.) Crest: A lance wreathed about with a branch (Mingay, A lance or, headed argent, environed with a laurel branch vert.)

For "William Mingay." The rest is too much obliterated to be given with any certainty.

Behind the South Door.

X. Royal Arms of Queen Victoria.

THRIGBY.

Tablet on the North Wall.

I. (Coloured.) Quarterly:—1 and 4, Azure, on a fesse argent between two eagles displayed or, as many lances in saltire, points uppermost sable (Woolmer or Wolmer of Thurston, co. Norfolk); 2 and 3, Chequy azure and or, a bend ermine, Ward.

For Robert Woolmer, Gent., the patron of this parish church, who died June 23rd, 1807, aged 97. This tablet was erected by Mr. Thomas Browne in 1826.

Altar Tomb at the East End of the Churchyard.

II. (In lozenge.) Quarterly:—1 and 4, A bend between three lozenge buckles, tongues in fesse (Baret or Barrett, Argent, a bend azure between three lozenge buckles, tongues in fesse gules); 2 and 3, On a chevron between three garbs as many estoiles? (Smith of Yarmouth, On a chevron between three garbs as many bees.—Three Norfolk Armories, Cod. A, 250.)

For Judith, relict of Joshua Smith of this parish, who died March, 1779, aged 79; for Judith their daughter, who died July 14th, 1804, aged 76; for Elizabeth their daughter, relict of Peter Baret, Esq., who died January 7th, 1808, aged 79; also for Lydia Baret, late of Thwaite in this county, who died December 1st, 1845, aged 84. The arms on the slab are those of Lydia Baret.

Over the North Door.

III. The Royal Arms of George III. R., after the Union with Ireland.

WEST FLEGG HUNDRED.

BILLOCKBY.

BURGH ST. MARGARET.

Coloured Shields on the Roof of the Nave.

I. Azure, three mitres labelled or, See of Norwich.

II. Arms of Queen Victoria.

CLIPPESBY.

I. Brass on the Floor of the Chancel, with Portraitures and Seven Shields.

It is stated in Cotman's Sepulchral Brasses, xlv., that "the bearings on this brass are all tricked in their proper colours." It may have been so, but the tinctures are not now reliable.—See Bl. Norf. xi. 164.

1. Quarterly, on a bend three mullets (Clippesby, Quarterly, argent and sable, on a bend gules three mullets of the first); impaling, Three lozenge buckles, tongues in fesse (Jerningham or Jernegan, Argent, three lozenge buckles, tongues in fesse gules.) These arms, thus impaled, were in the hall windows at Paston, but I cannot identify the marriage.—Bl. Norf. vi. 492.
2. Clippesby, impaling, A chevron guttée between three cinquefoils (Wodehouse of Kimberley, Sable, a chevron argent, guttée de sang, between three cinquefoils ermine.) "Alice, daughter of John Wodehouse, who was living in 1465, married William Clippesby.—Vis. of Norf. i. 103.
3. Quarterly of 12:—1 and 12, Clippesby; 2, Three martlets, a bordure engrailed (Redell of Norfolk? Sable, three martlets, a bordure engrailed argent); 3, An eagle displayed, over all a bend (Vert, an eagle displayed argent debruised with a bendlet or); 4, A chevron between three herons (Azure, a chevron between three herons argent); 5, A fish haurient (Azure, a pike haurient argent); 6, A saltire between twenty-four cross-crosslets (Or, a saltire between four cross-crosslets sable. This is the description given in Bl. Norf., which cannot be right); 7, Quarterly, on a bend three mullets (Caley, Quarterly, argent and sable, on a bend gules three mullets of the first); 8, On a chief three roundels (Gules, on a chief or three torteaux); 9, A lion rampant (Gules, a lion rampant argent); 10, A chevron between three lions rampant (Argent, a chevron between three lions rampant gules); 11, Barry of eight (Barry of eight or and sable.) Crest: A bull passant charged with roundels. This shield has mantling around it. Edmund de Clippesby, Esq., married Eva, daughter and coheir of Sir William Caley of Oby, and I should say that the quarterings from 7 to 11 were brought in thus, and that from henceforth the Clippesbys adopted the Caley coat.

4. Clippesby, impaling, Quarterly, the first and fourth quarters ermine, the second and third barry of six; a bordure (Knightley, Quarterly, the first and fourth quarters ermine, the second and third barry of six, or and gules; a bordure azure. It is thus on a monument at Tittleshall. Bl. Norf. xi. 164, omits "the bordure," whilst Cotman gives it "argent.") William Clippesby, father of John Clippesby, to whose memory the brass was placed, married Lettice, daughter of William Knightley of Norwich, Gent.
5. Clippesby, impaling, On a chevron between three women's heads erased, crined and crowned, as many roses seeded (Ellis, Sable, on a chevron between three women's heads erased argent, crowned and crined or, as many roses gules, seeded of the third.) John Clippesby married Julian, daughter of Matthew Ellis, Gent., of Cheshire.
6. Clippesby, impaling, Between two flaunches eleven roundels, three, two, one, two, and three (Spelman, Sable, between two flaunches argent eleven plates.) Katherine, daughter of John Spelman of Stow, married William Clippesby. He died in 1441.—Bl. Norf. vi. 151; Vis. of Norf. i. 251.
7. Clippesby, impaling, Six fleurs-de-lis, three, two, and one; a chief indented (Paston, Argent, six fleurs-de-lis azure; a chief indented or.) Katherine Spelman, married first to William Clippesby, remarried Edmund Paston. But that does not account for this shield.

"Here lyeth the Bodyes of John Clippesby, Esquire, and Julian his wife, who had issue, William deceased, and lefte Audry, Fraunces, and Julian, his daughters and coheires, which John dyed the 31 of March, 1594."

Tablet on the North Wall of the Chancel, with coloured Shield.

II. Argent, two bars between six lions' faces gules, three, two, and one, Muskett; impaling, Argent, three antique crowns gules; a bordure ermine; on a canton of the last a demi-otter sable. (Grant, Gules, three antique crowns or, a bordure ermine; on a canton of the second a demi-otter proper.) Crest (in white): Out of a ducal coronet a demi-antelope collared, chained, and ringed (Muskett, Out of a ducal coronet sable, a demi-antelope or, collared, chained, and ringed of the first.)

For Henry Muskett, Esq., who died October 27th, 1851, aged 64; also for Emily his relict, who died May 26th, 1882, aged 83. "Henry Muskett married Emily, daughter of Thomas Grant, Esq."—Burke's Landed Gentry.

Hatchment on the South Wall.

III. Same as No. II. Crest: Muskett.

HEMSBY.

Tablet on the North Wall of the Chancel, with raised Shield.

I. A fesse ermine between three lions' heads erased (Tilyard of Norwich, granted January 9th, 1772, Or, on a fesse vert between three lions' heads erased sable, five ermine spots argent.) Crest: A lion's head erased, collared ermine (Tilyard, A lion's head erased sable, collared vert, rimmed or, on the collar five ermine spots argent.)

For the Rev. Robert Tilyard, M.A., of Gonville and Caius College, Cambridge, Vicar of this parish, who died July 5th, 1786, aged 42.

MARTHAM.

Tomb on the North Side of the Chancel.

I. (Tinctured by lines.) Argent, a chevron gules between, in chief three martlets, and in base a cross moline sable, Dawson; impaling, Vert, a bend cotised or, Pearse. Crest: A nag's head couped fretty.

In memory of the Rev. Jonathan Dawson, A.M., of Exeter College, Oxford, who died January 29th, 1855. The tomb was erected by his wife, Catherine Alice, daughter of a former Rector, the Rev. George Pearse.

Slab in the Porch.

II. (Obliterated.) Crest: A dexter arm from the elbow, grasping a dagger (Mackay, A dexter arm from the elbow erect, holding a dagger in pale all proper, pommel and hilt or.)

"Mr. William Mackay, Vicar . . . . . Batswick (Bastwick) . . . . 87th." The inscription is almost illegible. I cannot find the name in either Blomefield's Norfolk or Dawson Turner's List of Norfolk Benefices.

Slab in the Churchyard.

III. A lion rampant, Creasey or Cresci. I cannot supply the tinctures for this. There is an ancient coat, "Argent, a lion rampant, double queued sable."

For "Benjamin Creasey, Gent., who departed this life . . . . . aged 75; also for Benjamin his son, an infant, who died April 5th, 1752."

REPPS.

On the Font.

I. A cross. I think this is the remains of what was once the Shield of the Passion.

ROLLESBY.

I. Tablet on the South Wall of the Chancel, with Portraitures and Two Shields.

1. (At the top. Defaced.) Bl. Norf. xi. 188, has the following description, which being rather confused I give just as it is, "On the summit of the monument the arms of Mapes, Sable, a fesse fusily or, or four fusils in fesse or; impaling, Southwell and Mapes; impaling, Per pale, argent and sable, an eagle with two necks displayed and counterchanged."
2. (At the bottom.) Sable, four fusils in fesse or, Mapes; impaling . . . . . This is too far gone for identification.

For "Leonard Mapes of Beeston next Norwich, Esqre., who had issue by Katherine his wife iiii sonnes and two daughters. He departed this life in hope of a joyfull resurrectiõ the iiii of February, Anno Domini 1619."

"Hec requies mea in seculum seculi
Hic habitabo quoniam elegi eam."

Altar Tomb by the North Wall of the Nave of the Chancel with recumbent Effigy.—See Selections of Norfolk Antiquities, by Mr. C. J. W. Winter.

II. The coats of arms on the monument have quite disappeared, but in Bl. Norf. xi. 187, they are described thus, "Claxton, Gules, a fess, three boars passant or, &c., quartering, Or, a fess quarterly, azure and gules, between three mascles of the second, Crekeman; and, Azure, three piles wavy or, with a canton ermin, Stafford; and in the last quarter, Gules, a bend vairy, argent and azure, between two cotises or, Bowyar; and impaling Lyster, Ermine, on a chevronel sable three mullets argent."

"Rose Claxton, daughter and heire to Will Lyster, and wife to Francis Claxton, departed this lyfe the 30th of May, in the yeare of our Lorde 1601, whoe in the 23 yeare of her age and 7 yeer of her mariage, was heare inteered," &c., &c.

Slab in the Chancel.

III. Ermine, on a chief three lions rampant, charged at the fesse point with a label of three (Gleane, Ermine, on a chief sable three lions rampant argent.—Bl. Norf. xi. 188); impaling Mapes. The fusils are here "on a fesse."

For Anne, wife of Thomas Gleane, who died January 6th, 1680, aged 81.

NOE PERSON THAT'S ON EARTH CAN HAPPY BE

SOMERTON, WEST.

Tablet on the North Wall.

I. Crest: A demi-lion rampant, Rising.

For William Rising, Esq., born May 1st, 1769, died June 5th, 1846.

THURNE.

Tablet on the North Wall of the Nave.

I. Crest: A demi-talbot, holding in its mouth an arrow, all argent.

For Robert Waters of Ashby Hall, who died June 7th, 1852, in his 57th year. Erected by Eliza his wife.

WINTERTON.

Tablets on the North Wall of the Chancel, with coloured Shield.

I. Argent, three pallets gules, a bordure engrailed azure; on a canton of the second a spur or, Knight or Knights; impaling, Or, a chevron gules; on a chief of the last three martlets of the field.

For Engle Knights, Esq., late of East Somerton, who died February 15th, 1801, in his 78th year. Also for Elizabeth, relict of the above, who died January 13th, 1808, aged 76.

II. On a chevron between three martlets as many trefoils slipped, Lens ? impaling Knights. The bordure is "or."

For John Lens of the city of Norwich, who died November 5th, 1779, in his 74th year; for Persis, relict of the above and daughter of Edward Knights, who died March 29th, 1808, aged 78. Also for Letitia, infant daughter of John and Persis Lens, who died January 4th, 1766.

Tablet on the South Wall of the Chancel.

III. (Coloured.) Ermine, on a bend sable, cotised gules, three water-bougets argent (Huntington, Ermine, three water-bougets in bend sable between two cotises gules); in pretence, Azure, a lion rampant argent, grasping with the dexter fore paw a battle-axe in bend sinister proper, the dexter hind foot resting on a fire ball sable, emitting flames also proper, Hethersett, and impaling, Argent, three bears' ? heads erased sable, a chief gules, Barker. Crest: A bear's head erased sable, muzzled or.

For John Barker Huntington, late of East Somerton, who died at Boulogne-sur-Mer, on December 9th, 1832, aged 58.

Slab at the West End.

IV. A lion rampant (Womack, Argent, a lion rampant gules). Crest: A cross-crosslet fitchée (Womack, A cross-crosslet; see p. 336). Motto: Suivez la raison.

For Louisa, third daughter of William and Matilda Womack of East Somerton, who died July 18th, 1835, aged 29; for William Womack, who died January 30th, 1845, aged 80; also for Matilda his wife, who died April 6th, 1852, aged 78.

Shields on the South Porch.

V. Shield of the Passion, without the spear and reed.

VI. Shield of the Passion. A most unusual example, "A spear and reed in saltire, encircled at the fesse point with a crown of thorns, between, on the dexter side a hammer, and on the sinister a pair of pincers."

Over the Chancel Arch.

VII. Royal Arms of Charles the Second, "C. R., 1669."

HAPPING HUNDRED.

BRUNSTEAD.

Tablet on the North Wall.

I. Crest: Two arms couped at the shoulders, embowed, holding in the hands a garb (Comyn, Two arms couped at the shoulders, habited ermine, holding in the hands proper a garb or.)

For Elizabeth, wife of the Rev. H. N. W. Comyn, Rector of Brunstead, who died March 28th, 1877, aged 94.

Slabs in the Nave.

II. Two bars, a crescent in chief for difference (Harcourt, Gules, two bars or.—Three Norfolk Armories, Cod. A, 242.)

For Elizabeth, wife of John Harcourt of Barton Turf, Gent., who died January 14th, 1678, aged 27.

III. Harcourt.

For Boys Harcourt, son of John and Elizabeth Harcourt, some time of Barton Turf "arte medica apud Cantabrigiensis Baccalaureatus gradum meruit floribus placidissimis." He died 1697, aged 22. There is also recorded on this slab the death of Elizabeth, wife of Edward English, late of Woodbastwick, mother of Elizabeth Harcourt, and grandmother of Boys Harcourt, who died March 4th, 1685.

IV. A bend between six fleurs-de-lis; impaling . . . .

"Heare lies interred the body of Elizabeth . . . . the wid . . of Francis Es . . deceased January . . . . " This slab is nearly covered up by pews.

Tomb in the Churchyard.

V. Argent, a cross-crosslet sable between four ermine spots (Durrant, Or, a cross-crosslet ermine, between four spots of ermine proper.) Crest: A boar passant, pierced in the side with a broken lance. (Durrant, A boar passant per fesse, wavy argent and gules, bristled and tusked azure, and pierced in the side with a broken lance proper.)

For Maria, wife of George Durrant of Norwich, who died

February 2nd, 1881, aged 77; also for George Durrant, who died November 21st, 1882, aged 85.

VI. In the Hundred of Happing, by Mr. Rye, there is yet another memorial with the arms of Durrant, for Cubitt Durrant, who died November 18th, 1865, aged 79, and William his only son, who died January 16th, 1877, aged 33.

Cuddon of Shadingfield, in ye county of Suffolk, Gent., by whome she had Issue one son Martin, and three daughters, Catherine, Elizabeth, and Margarett. He died August 2, 1688, in ye 36th year of his age."

Here Underneath ys stone Inter'd doth lie
The fatal conquest of proud destiny
Whose great desert & noble parts did prove
Him worthy while alive of all men's love
Now dead in peace let him possess the ground
Who left his friends with grief and sorrow drown'd.

HORSEY.

INGHAM.

The fine monuments in the Church have been much mutilated, and the brasses reeved, that on them not one armorial shield remains.

Slabs at the West End of the North Aisle.

I. (In lozenge.) On a saltire five crosses pattée (Johnson, Gules, on a saltire argent five crosses moline of the first.—Three Norfolk Armories, Cod. A, 247.)

POTTER HEIGHAM.

Tablet on the South Wall of the Chancel.

I. (Coloured, but much obliterated.) Argent, a fesse dancettée gules; on a chief sable a lion passant guardant or (Mihill, Vicar of Heigham Potter, Argent, a fesse dancettée gules guttée de l'armes; on a chief sable a lion passant or.—Three Norfolk Armories, Cod. C, 207); impaling, Ermine, on a chief sable a griffin passant or (Richmond? of Hedenham. The field is very much obliterated, but there are evident traces of something having been upon it.)

For "Robert Mihill, Clerk, Vicar of y^s^ towne, who died Feby. 22, 166(8?); for Ann his widow, who died April 25th, 1695, aged 80 years; for Elizabeth Trott, singlewoman, his grandaughter, died August 29th, 1697, aged 21; for Henry, son of ye abovenamed Robert Mihill, who died Septr. 12, 1697, aged 45; and also for Mihil Batho, Gent., great grandson, who died Novr. 10, 1709, aged 20."

Brass on the Chancel Floor, with Four similar Shields and Crest.

II. A chevron embattled between three lions rampant (Baspole, Baispoole, or Baspoole. Argent, a chevron embattled between three lions rampant sable, langued gules. See p. 228.) Crest: Out of a ducal coronet a stag's head attired, wreathed about the neck and tied (Baspoole, Out of a ducal coronet or, a stag's head ermine, attired of the first, wreathed about the neck and tied with bows argent and sable.) There is "a bordure" round these shields, which may have been intended for a mark of difference.

"Here under resteth the bodyes of Richard Baispoole, late of Potter Heigham, Gentleman, who deceased the x. day of June, in the year of our Lord God 1613."

Slab in the Chancel.

III. A lion rampant between an orle of acorns slipped (Atwood, Gules, a lion rampant argent between eight acorns slipped or, for Atwood of Heigham.—Three Norfolk Armories, Cod. C, 226. Guttée, a lion rampant. This does not speak much for the accuracy of the manuscript); impaling, Per pale, a lion rampant.

For "Clemens Atwood, A.M., hujus Ecclesiæ Vicarius, et Maria ejus uxor e quibus, Alter obiit iii° Julii, Altera non Decemb. Anno Dom. MDCLXXXXIX. Ille ætat. XLIII. Hæc XXXV."

Slab in the Nave.

between eight billets or.) Crest: A caltrap between two wings erect and conjoined (Yallop, A pheon or between two wings erect argent.—Bl. Norf. ii. 384.)

For Gyles Yallop, lately deceased, obiit [9 July, 1711.] The greater part of the slab is covered up: that in brackets is not absolutely reliable.

On the Font.

V. There are four shields, on one of which there remains "A saltire."

Over the Chancel Arch.

VI. Royal Arms of G. II. R.

RUSTON, EAST.

Slab in the South Aisle.

I. Two bars; a bordure (Gelsthorp.—Three Norfolk Armories, Cod. A, 510; Cod. C, 208.)

"Hic dormit Anna Dunhami Bird aromatarii uxor, unigenita filia ac hæres Gulielmi Gelsthorp, gener., obiit die Aprilis 2do Anno ætatis 27° Christi 1680. Necnon Anna prædict. Dunhami Bird Annœq. uxoris filia obiit die Martii 16° Anno Dom̄i 1680."

Tablet on the South Wall of the Aisle.

II. (Coloured.) Argent, on a chevron gules three crescents or (Athill of Brandiston.—There is added on this tablet "a bordure or," and the chevron is made "paly gules sable and or.")

For Anthony John Athill, who died February 4th, 1876, aged 62. Buried at Brandeston, the family resting-place. Maria his wife erected this tablet.

STALHAM.

Monument on the South Side of the Chancel, with raised Shield.

I. Three castles triple-towered (Castell of Raveningham, Argent, three castles triple-towered gules); impaling, on the dexter side three annulets (Riches, Argent, three annulets azure); and impaling, On a chevron, between, in chief two cross-crosslets, and in base a cross-crosslet crossed, three mullets, Smyth.

For Katherine, daughter of Talmach Castell of Raveningham, married first to John Riches, Gent., of this town, and afterwards to the Rev. Willing Smyth, D.L., one of the Prebendaries of the Cathedral Church at Norwich, and at her death was his widow and relict. She died May 26th, 1718, aged 78.

For William Burton, Gent., late Alderman of Great Yarmouth, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Burton. He died July 19th, 1686, aged 39.

V. Two bars, over all a bend, and in chief a lozenge, Copeman.

"Rediit ad requiem pia anima Richard Copeman, Arm., Aug. 13, 1656."

SUTTON.

Slab in the South Aisle.

I. A talbot passant, with a label of three for difference. Crest: A demi-talbot. This coat and crest may be intended for Carter.

"In the middle Ile lies William, son of Japhatt Bowes, who died January 30th, 1721, aged 29. Japhatt Bowes died March 20th, 1725, aged 72. Sarah his wife died April 13th, 1737, aged 76. Susan, wife of William Carter, daughter of Japhatt Bowes, who died September 1st, 1739, aged 38, for William Carter, who died September 22nd, 1770, aged 75. Their son William Carter placed this stone."

Coloured Shields on the Nave Roof.

II. Argent, a cross gules, St. George.

III. Gules, a cross patonce argent.

WALCOT.

Tablet on the North Wall of the Chancel.

I. (Coloured.) Azure, a fesse wavy argent guttée-de-sang, between, in chief two cross-crosslets fitchée or, and in base a crescent of the second, Warner; impaling, Argent, on a chevron gules, between three eagles displayed sable, legged of the second, as many annulets or, Siely. Crest: A triple plume of ostrich feathers or.

For William Warner, Esq., who died October 5th, 1830, aged 68; for Hannah his wife, who died August 25th, 1832, aged 62. In the Monumental Inscriptions of the Hundred of Happing, by Walter Rye, p. 101, there are several memorials given of the Siely family. One of them is for "Hannah, wife of Alexander Siely, who died Sept. 12th, 1782, aged 79 years." Hannah Warner may have been their daughter.

Shields above the West Doorway.

II. A cross.

III. Emblem of the Trinity.

Shields around the West Door.

IV. A cross.

V. Gone.

VI. A . . . . . between two roses in pale, barbed and seeded.

VII. A chevron between three . . . . .

At the base of the Tower Buttresses.

VIII. Shield of the Passion. The "cross and crown of thorns" remain.

IX. A saltire engrailed (Kerdeston, Gules, a saltire engrailed argent.)

The stone heraldry on this tower is much decayed, and is very difficult to identify. In Harl. MSS. 901, Kemp does not mention it, but speaks of shields in the windows, amongst them being the coat of Foulman, "Argent, a chevron ermine between three ducal coronets sable," and Rose. There is in Burke's Armory a coat for the latter family, of Great Yarmouth, which may be a guide towards the identification of No. VI., "Sable, on a pale argent three roses seeded and slipped proper."

WAXHAM.

I. Monument by the North Wall, now covered with plaister, on it Three raised Shields.

1. Quarterly, the first and fourth quarters ermine, on the second and third a leopard's face (Woodhouse of Waxham and Hickling, Quarterly, ermine and azure, on the second and third quarters a leopard's head or); impaling, Ermine, three chevrons (Reppes or Repps, Ermine, three chevrons sable.)
2. Woodhouse.
3. Woodhouse impaling Reppes.

There is no inscription. Sir William Woodhouse of Hickling is stated to have married Ann, daughter of Henry Reppes of Thorpe Market.—Carthew's Launditch, iii. 320; Bl. Norf. ix. 353. There is no mention made of this monument in the account of the parish of Waxham in the latter work, whereas when writing of Hickling, ix. 307, there is described "a monument in memory of Sir William Woodhouse, without any inscription; over his tomb his achievement, Quarterly, in the first and fourth, azure, a leopard's face or; in the second and third, ermine, his gilt sword, &c." It will be seen that the coat of arms is inaccurately given, and, it may be, the site also.

TUNSTEAD HUNDRED.

ASHMANHAUGH.

I. Tomb on the South Side of the Chancel, with raised Shields, Three on the Tomb and One on a Tablet above.

1. (On the tablet.) Three boars passant (Bacon, Azure, three boars passant or.) "Honori Bacon fideli amico suo Nicholas Themylthorp generosus posuit hoc."

Shields on Buttresses.

VIII. Six fleurs-de-lis, three, two, and one; a chief indented (Paston, Argent, six fleurs-de-lis, three, two, and one, azure; a chief indented or.)

IX. On two chevrons six cinquefoils. The only coat I know like this is that of Muswell, "Vert, on two chevrons argent six cinquefoils gules." In an old MS. belonging to Mr. Walter

Rye, containing blazons of the Paston matches, this coat, with like tinctures, is there spoken of under the name of Swanton.

X. A saltire. See No. II.

XI. A cross.

Shields above the West Door.

XII. A cup.

XIII. A scrip and staff in pale between two escallops.

BARTON TURF.

Tablets in the South Chapel, with coloured Shields.

I. Quarterly:—1 and 4, Quarterly, argent and gules, in the second and third quarters a fret of the first, over all a fesse azure (Norris. The fret is usually "or"); 2 and 3, Sable, on a cross couped or five pellets, Graile; impaling, Or, on an eagle displayed gules an estoile of the field, Custance of Weston.

For Anthony Norris, Esq., born November 11th, 1711, died June 14th, 1786; for John Norris, his only child, born January 28th, 1737-8, died March 19th, 1762. Of the former it is recorded on the monument "that he lived, not for himself alone, but for the Public, his eminent abilities being constantly employed, as a Christian in the Exemplary discharge of every religious duty, as a Magistrate in dispensing Justice with Mercy, as a Scholar in digesting the productions of classic ages, as an Antiquary and Historian in collecting the various revolutions of Families and Possessions in this his native county."

II. (In lozenge.) Same as No. I.

For Sarah, wife of Anthony Norris, who died July 26th, 1787, aged 70.

Slabs in the South Chapel.

III. Norris impaling Graile. Crest: An eagle rising (Norris, From a mount vert an eagle rising sable.)

For Brigitta, daughter and heiress of John Graile, sometime Rector of Blickling, and wife of Stephen Norris, "nuper de hac parochia clerici," who died the last day of January, 1743, aged 64, in the forty-first year of her married life.

2. Or, a fesse between two chevrons gules, Fitzwalter.
3. Argent, a bend engrailed sable, Ratcliffe, Earls of Sussex.
4. Quarterly, azure and gules, a cross flory between four trefoils slipped or, Manning.

Page 32. Fersfield, I. The impalement may be intended for, Quarterly:—1 and 4, Sable, a falcon close argent, beaked and belled or, Bolton; 2 and 3, Gules, a trefoil slipped between three wolves' heads erased or. These are the arms, with the usual quartering, of Bolton of Woodbridge, Suffolk.

Page 33. Roydon, II. The impalement is for Rolf of Tuttington, Argent, three ravens sable.

Page 33. Roydon. There are eight shields on the battlements of the octagon tower, each bearing the arms of Frere, Gules, two leopards' faces in pale between as many flaunches or. On the south side of the vault is Frere, impaling (Richards, Argent, a cross patonce between four Cornish choughs proper.)

Page 41. Banham, I. This is probably the Royal Arms of the Tudor period.

Page 45. West Harling, Nos. VI., VII., and VIII. "Or, a lion rampant gules," may be for Charleton.

Pages 48 and 49. Riddlesworth, I. The impalement, obviously entirely incorrect, is intended for the arms and quarterings of Forrester. Thomas Thornhill, Esq., having married a daughter of Major and the Hon. Mrs. Forrester.

Page 49. Riddlesworth, II. The impalement is, Quarterly:—1 and 4, A chevron between three martlets (Hodgson, Sable, a chevron between three martlets or); 2 and 3, Three nags' heads. Thomas Thornhill, Esq., of Riddlesworth, having married a daughter of Richard Hodgson of Carham, co. Northumberland, M.P.

Page 53. Attleborough, V. The impalement is probably an unrecorded coat of Pride; the two so-called serpents upon the chevron being intended for "preeds," or lampreys.

Page 56. Besthorpe, IV., No. 4. Argent, on a chevron within a bordure engrailed gules five bezants, is for Chetilton, not Bromley.

Page 65. Larling, I. It may be intended for, "Quarterly, gules and vaire; on a bend an annulet in dexter chief, and underneath a crescent," Constable. Thomas Caton of Thorpe Abbots, who died in 1705, married one of the daughters and coheiresses of Luke Constable of Swaffham Market. The Thomas Caton here commemorated was perhaps a son of the above-named Thomas, and may have used the arms of Constable instead of his paternal coat. Major A. E. Lawson Lowe, F.S.A., states that he has seen a seal of Caton quartering Constable, the latter coat having both an annulet and a crescent upon the bend.
